Rebuilding Higher Education Systems Impacted by Crises: Navigating Traumatic Events, Disasters, and More Kayyali, Mustafa, 2024-04-05 The resilience and adaptability of higher education systems are under unprecedented strain From natural disasters to pandemics and economic crises to political turmoil universities and colleges worldwide have grappled with a myriad of crises that disrupt their core missions of teaching research and community engagement As we find ourselves at the crossroads of these tumultuous times the imperative to reconstruct and revitalize higher education systems becomes increasingly evident Rebuilding Higher Education Systems Impacted by Crises Navigating Traumatic Events Disasters and More is a pioneering work that addresses the critical issues surrounding the restoration of higher education systems in the wake of various crises This book serves as a roadmap for educators administrators policymakers and stakeholders who share a commitment to preserving and advancing higher education even in the face of adversity The 21st century has witnessed a rapid escalation in the frequency and severity of crises affecting higher education institutions These crises span from the abrupt shift to online learning necessitated by the COVID 19 pandemic to the enduring ramifications of climate change on campus infrastructure Additional factors such as financial pressures evolving demographics and the ever changing technological landscape further complicate the challenge This book embarks on a deep exploration of these challenges and offers practical solutions making it an indispensable resource for anyone vested in the future of higher education Globalisation, Higher Education, the Labour Market and Inequality Antonia Kupfer, 2014-07-16 Globalisation

Higher Education the Labour Market and Inequality addresses the global transformation of higher education in relation to changes in the labour market. It focuses on the relative impact of elements of globalisation on social inequality and provides insights into the ways in which these general forces of change are transformed into specific policies shaped by global forces and the various national values, institutional structures and politics of the specified societies. The book begins with a theoretical conceptualization for a comparative understanding of globalization, higher education, labour markets and inequality. This is followed by a range of mainstream accounts from an international selection of contributors of the ways in which national systems have responded to the forces of globalisation and the increasing demand for higher education graduates in Australia, the Czech Republic, Germany, Japan, New Zealand and the UK. Finally, contributors explore more specific concerns such as the transition from higher education to the labour market in China and Sweden, the division of the knowledge workers into traditional social groups in the US and the role and salience of Doctoral programmes in South Africa in developing a knowledge economy. This book was originally published as a special issue of the Journal of Education and Work.

Advanced Two-Dimensional Nanomaterials for Environmental and Sensing Applications Peter R. Makgwane, Naveen Kumar, David E. Motaung, 2024-12-24. Advanced Two Dimensional Nanomaterials for Environmental and Sensing Applications provides state of the art progress developments in the design strategies of 2D based nanomaterials. It covers specific focused applications in respective environmental challenges posed by pollutants such as chemical gases, bacterial and microbial, textile dyes, pharmaceutical antibiotics, agricultural pesticides and toxic heavy metals in water and air contaminations. It elaborates the applications of 2D nanomaterials in the context of technologies such as sensing and detection to monitor pollutants as well as photocatalysis and adsorption for the removal of pollutants. Features: Elaborates the applications of 2D nanomaterials in the context of sensing and detection to monitor pollutants as well as photocatalysis and adsorption for the removal of pollutants. Focuses on environmental pollutants detection, removal or remediation and monitoring device fabrications. Discusses materials of specific dimension 2D. Covers both water and air remediation. Includes photocatalytic degradations and antimicrobial disinfection. This book is aimed at graduate students and researchers in chemical and civil engineering, materials science and nanomaterials.

Higher Education in the BRICS Countries Simon Schwartzman, Rómulo Pinheiro, Pundy Pillay, 2015-03-24. In spite of the increasing attention attributed to the rise in prominence of the BRICS (Brazil, Russia, India, China and South Africa) countries, few studies have looked at the ways in which broader social expectations with respect to the role of higher education across the BRICS have changed or not in recent years. Our point of departure is that contrary to the conventional wisdom focusing on functionalistic perspectives, higher education systems are not just designed by governments to fulfill certain functions but have a tendency for evolving in a rather unpredictable fashion as a result of the complex interplay between a number of internal and external factors. In reality, national higher education systems develop and change according to a complex process that encompasses the expectations of governmental agencies markets the aspirations of the population for the benefits of education the specific institutional traditions and cultures of higher education institutions and increasingly so the interests and strategies of the private firms entering and offering services in the higher education market This basically means that it is of outmost importance to move away from conceiving of universities or higher education as single monolithic actors or sector One way of doing this is by investigating a selected number of distinct but nonetheless interrelated factors or drivers which taken together help determine the nature and scope of the social compact between higher education its core actors and institutions and society at large government industry local communities professional associations

Handbook of Research on the Global View of Open Access and Scholarly Communications Alemneh, Daniel Gelaw, 2022-04-29 In an information and knowledge society access to information and knowledge is a basic human right making equitable and fair access to information and knowledge paramount Open Access OA plays a huge role in addressing inequities as well as broad based and inclusive scientific progress On the surface the number of publications discussing OA issues from various angles are on the rise However what is missing is a comprehensive assessment of the extent of OA implementation and a discussion of how to proceed in integrating OA issues from various perspectives The Handbook of Research on the Global View of Open Access and Scholarly Communications articulates OA concepts and issues while demystifying the state of the art knowledge domain in the areas of OA and scholarly communications from diverse perspectives as well as implications for the information and knowledge society Covering topics such as ethics copyright challenges and open access initiatives this book is a dynamic resource for publishers librarians higher education administrators policymakers students and educators of higher education researchers and academicians

Digital inequality in a developing context Nobert R. Jere, Gardner Mwansa, Memory Ranga, Attlee M. Gamundani, Pardon B Maoneke, 2025-04-15 Digital inequality in a developing context A multifaceted approach critically explores the complex and persistent nature of the digital divide in South Africa addressing a notable gap in existing scholarship Drawing on secondary data the book examines how digital inequalities manifest across key sectors such as education healthcare and agriculture sectors vital to national development and individual well being These disparities are shaped by intersecting socio economic technical and geographical factors particularly the urban rural divide The volume underscores the importance of infrastructure development digital literacy affordability and equitable access as central to bridging the digital gap It argues that without targeted and sustained interventions in these areas digital inequality will continue to hinder socio economic progress and deepen existing structural inequalities This scholarly book offers fresh perspectives and practical insights for researchers policymakers and practitioners seeking to advance digital inclusion in developing contexts

Handbook of Research on Managing the Urban-Rural Divide Through an Inclusive Framework Popoola, Ayobami Abayomi, Magidimisha-Chipungu, Hangwelani Hope, Chipungu, Lovemore, 2023-02-10 In recent years the growing disparities between rural and urban areas in developing countries have been a cause of major concern The rural urban gap remains the single most well documented development and welfare disparity in the developing world This gap can be seen in the low economic activities higher poverty levels and lower quality infrastructure and services in rural areas as opposed to urban areas While the magnitude of this rural urban divide is well documented very little has been documented about its impact on inclusive and sustainable urban development The Handbook of Research on Managing the Urban Rural Divide Through an Inclusive Framework aims to capture the spatial and socio economic divide between rural and urban areas and provides a road map to revamping the discussion that surrounds the urban rural sphere Covering key topics such as development food security and rural regions this premier reference source is ideal for policymakers government officials industry professionals researchers academicians practitioners scholars instructors and students

Impact of Global University Ranking Systems on Developing Countries Onyancha, Omwoyo Bosire, Tella, Adeyinka, 2023-06-01 The emotive discourses on the subject of university rankings are directly linked to the effect of such rankings on the performance of universities throughout the world It has been observed that the top ranked universities attract major financial commitments from the industry the best students quality researchers and a wide range of other quality endowments such as equipment libraries and laboratories It is not surprising that the ranking of universities has gained popularity and become a significant factor shaping not only the reputation of universities but also the performance of said institutions around the world including the developing countries Impact of Global University Ranking Systems on Developing Countries presents a collection of perspectives from scholars and other stakeholders on the impact of the global ranking systems on developing countries The book is an additional resource for discussion and discourse as far as the global university ranking systems are concerned and opens new frontiers for further research Covering key topics such as assessment ethics and academic freedom this premier reference source is ideal for administrators policymakers researchers scholars academicians practitioners instructors and students

Culture and Rural-Urban Revitalisation in South Africa Mziwoxolo Sirayi, Modimowabarwa Kanyane, Giulio Verdini, 2021-06-14 This book captures ground breaking attempts to utilise culture in territorial development and regeneration processes in the context of South Africa and our new normal brought by COVID 19 the fourth industrial revolution and climate change the world over The importance of culture in rural urban revitalisation has been underestimated in South Africa and the African continent at large Despite some cultural initiatives that are still at developmental stages in big cities such as Johannesburg eThekweni and Cape Town there is concern about the absence of sustainable policies and plans to support culture creativity and indigenous knowledge at national and municipal levels Showcasing alternative strategies for making culture central to development this book discusses opportunities to shift culture and indigenous knowledge from the peripheries and place them at the epicentre of sustainable development and the mainstream of cultural planning which can then be applied in the contexts of Africa and the Global South Governmental institutions research councils civil society organisations private sector and higher education institutions come together in a joint effort to explain the nexus between culture economic development rural urban linkages grassroots and technological innovations Culture and Rural Urban Revitalization in South Africa is an ideal read for those interested in rural and urban planning cultural policy indigenous knowledge and smart rural village model Lessons from Problem-based Learning Henk van Berkel, Albert Scherpbier, Harry Hillen, Cees van der Vleuten, 2010-08-12 Problem based learning PBL has excited interest among educators around the world for several decades Among the most notable applications of PBL is the approach taken at the Faculty of Health Medicine and Life sciences FHML at Maastricht University the Netherlands Starting in 1974 as a medical school the faculty embarked on the innovative pathway of problem based learning trying to establish a medical training program which applied recent insights of education which would be better adapted to the needs of the modern physician The medical school currently part of the FHML can be considered as an established school where original innovations and educational changes have become part of a routine The first book to bring this wealth of information together Lessons from Problem based Learning documents those findings and shares the experiences of those involved to encourage further debate and refinement of problem based learning in specific applications elsewhere and in general educational discussion and thought Each chapter provides a description of why and what has been done in the Maastricht program followed by reflection on the benefits and issues that have arisen for these developments The final section of the book examines the application of PBL in the future and how it is likely to develop further Handbook of Comparative Higher Education Law Charles J. Russo, 2013-07-11 The Handbook of Comparative Higher Education Law addresses legal issues from institutions of higher learning in seventeen countries on all six inhabited continents in a reader friendly manner All chapters follow the same outline on institutional issues faculty rights student rights and emerging issues so that similarities and differences can be compared An introductory chapter provides an overview on the legal status of higher education as selected in various international covenants In addition a concluding chapter draws the themes addressed throughout the book together and centers on the concept of best practice management This book serves as valuable resource for educational practitioners in higher education insofar as it provides them with an enhanced awareness of strategies that are being used to manage problems commonly faced in multiple educational settings ICT Education George Wells, Monelo Nxosi, Bobby Tait, 2022-01-01 This book constitutes the refereed proceedings of the 49th Annual Conference of the Southern African Computer Lecturers Association on ICT Education SACLA 2019 held in a virtual mode in South Africa in July 2020 The 13 revised full papers presented were carefully reviewed and selected from 55 submissions The papers focus on practical experiences in computing education novel tools for learning and or assessment and research investigating aspects of computing education Reimagining Effective Stakeholder Governance Practices in Higher Education Felix Omal, 2023-06-22 This book examines the role of the university governing council and the changing nature of university governance using a case study from a South African university The book considers the key challenging features of South African higher education in relation to current competing international trends in higher education governance It shows how major decision makers within the university operate within competing governance knowledge domains to exercise good practice within turbulent institutional contexts These diverse institutional cultures are examined in terms of their contribution to various governance practices presenting an emerging model of university governance known as the structural systemic cultural model Throwing light on the nature of challenges associated with the governance of universities in the post apartheid era this book will be of interest to academics researchers and postgraduate students in the fields of higher education comparative education and education governance Also it will appeal to university councils and management across Africa

Research Universities in Africa Cloete, Nico, Bunting, Ian, 2018-11-09 From the early 2000s a new discourse emerged in Africa and the international donor community that higher education was important for development in Africa Within this zeitgeist of converging interests a range of agencies agreed that a different collaborative approach to linking higher education to development was necessary This led to the establishment of the Higher Education Research and Advocacy Network in Africa Herana to concentrate on research and advocacy about the possible role and contribution of universities to development in Africa This book is the final publication to emerge from the Herana project The project has also published more than 100 articles chapters reports manuals and datasets and many presentations have been delivered to share insights gained from the work done by Herana Given its prolific dissemination it seems reasonable to ask whether this fourth and final publication will offer the reader anything new This book is certainly different from previous publications in several respects First it is the only book to include an analysis of eight African universities based on the full 15 years of empirical data collected by the project Second previous books and reports were published mid project This book has benefited from an extended gestation period allowing the authors and contributors to reflect on the project without the distractions associated with managing and participating in a large scale project For the first time some of those who have been involved in Herana since its inception have had the opportunity to at least make an attempt to see part of the wood for the trees Different does not necessarily mean new An emphasis on the newness of the data and perspectives presented in this book is important because it shows that it is more than a historical record of a donor funded project Rather each chapter in this book brings to a lesser or greater extent something new to our understanding of universities research and development in Africa
