RE: Andre Pulido

Dear Sir or Madam:

I have had the privilege of working with Andre over the last 2 years. I have found him to be a creative and dedicated employee who is always looking for ways to make things better.

Having given you that brief introduction, I can say Andre has also impressed me with his skills in being able to keep all of the "balls in the air". He was instrumental in Nitronex Corporation receiving and maintaining our ISO certification. He took over a very minimally compliant manual document control system and managed it to the point where there have never been not only no discrepancies but basically any document related questions during our audits.

Beside his document control role Andre became our point person on shipping and receiving. He helped revise all the procedures and forms associated with these processes and made them much easier to manage. This led to a "Noteworthy Effort" comment from our ISO auditor on the Critical Supplier Log Andre maintained as being "a simple yet effective tool for monitoring and recording supplier performance for both delivery and quality performance."

Certainly not the least of his contributions was his help and recommendations with Nitronex' first attempt at developing both our process FMEA's and Value Stream Maps. Both of which garnered many favorable comments from key customers.

I consider it an honor to have worked with someone as concerned and as diligent to his job as Andre. I would rehire him in a second to do any number of tasks. I would be glad to discuss his qualifications further if you would like to contact me.

Sincerely,

Frank A. Palmieri
Quality Manager
