Venus In Furs:

Venus in Furs Leopold Ritter von Sacher-Masoch, 2004 Leopold von Sacher Masoch was born in Lemberg Austrian Galicia on January 27 1836 He studied jurisprudence at Prague and Graz and in 1857 became a teacher at the latter university He published several historical works but soon gave up his academic career to devote himself wholly to literature For a number of years he edited the international review Auf der Höhe at Leipzig but later removed to Paris for he was always strongly Francophile His last years he spent at Lindheim in Hesse Germany where he died on March 9 1895 In 1873 he married Aurora von Rumelin who wrote a number of novels under the pseudonym of Wanda von Dunajew which it is interesting to note is the name of the heroine of Venus in Furs Her sensational memoirs which have been the cause of considerable controversy were published in 1906 During his career as writer an endless number of works poured from Sacher Masoch's pen Many of these were works of ephemeral journalism and some of them unfortunately pure sensationalism for economic necessity forced him to turn his pen to unworthy ends There is however a residue among his works which has a distinct literary and even greater psychological value His principal literary ambition was never completely fulfilled It was a somewhat programmatic plan to give a picture of contemporary life in all its various aspects and interrelations under the general title of the Heritage of Cain This idea was probably derived from Balzac's Comédie Humaine The whole was to be divided into six subdivisions with the general titles Love Property Money The State War and Death Each of these divisions in its turn consisted of six novels of which the last was intended to summarize the author's conclusions and to present his solution for the problems set in the others This extensive plan remained unachieved and only the first two parts Love_ and _Property were completed Of the other sections only fragments remain The present novel Venus in Furs forms the fifth in the series Love The best of Sacher Masoch's work is characterized by a swift narration and a graphic representation of character and scene and a rich humor The latter has made many of his shorter stories dealing with his native Galicia little masterpieces of local color

Venus In Furs Sacher-Masoch Ritter von Leopold,2023-05 Leopold von Sacher Masoch an Austrian novelist first published his book Venus in Furs in 1870 The narrative centers on Severin von Kusiemski who develops an obsession with Wanda von Dunajew Wanda s attractiveness and assertive nature interest Severin who persuades her to accept him as her slave When Wanda agrees Severin submits to her completely giving her the power to rule and manipulate him The book examines topics including sexuality and desire as well as power dominance and surrender. It is significant for establishing the idea of masochism which bears the author's name and refers to the practice of taking pleasure in humiliation or suffering. The book has received acclaim for its psychological nuance and examination of interpersonal connections but it has also drawn criticism for how it portrays women and for its overtly sexualized language. Venus, the Roman goddess of love, and the furs Wanda dons while controlling Severin are references in the book's title. The book has been converted into a variety of media such as operas, plays, and movies and it has impacted the creative output of numerous writers and performers.

A Venus in Furs Leopold von Sacher-Masoch, 2019-06-15. Venus in Furs is a novella by the Austrian author Leopold von Sacher-Masoch and the best known of his works. The novel draws themes like female dominance and sadomasochism and character inspiration heavily from Sacher-Masoch's own life. The framing story concerns a man who dreams of speaking to Venus about love while she wears furs. The unnamed narrator tells his dreams to a friend Severin who tells him how to break him of his fascination with cruel women by reading a manuscript Memoirs of a Suprasensual Man. This manuscript tells of a man Severin von Kusiemski who is so infatuated with a woman Wanda von Dunajew that he asks to be her slave and encourages her to treat him in progressively more degrading ways. At first Wanda does not understand or accede to the request but after humouring Severin a bit she finds the advantages of the method to be interesting and enthusiastically embraces the idea although at the same time she disdains Severin for allowing her to do so. Severin describes his feelings during these experiences as suprasensuality. Severin and Wanda travel to Florence. Along the way Severin takes the generic Russian servant's name of Gregor and the role of Wanda's servant. In Florence Wanda treats him brutally as a servant and recruits a trio of African women to dominate him. The relationship arrives at a crisis when Wanda herself meets a man to whom she would like to submit, a Byronic hero known as Alexis Papadopolis. At the end of the book Severin, humiliated by Wanda's new lover, loses the desire to submit. He says of Wanda: "That woman as nature has created her and man at present is educating her is man's enemy. She can only be his slave or his despot but never his companion. This she can become only when she has the same rights as he and is his equal in education and work."
