Vanuatu Economic Report 2009 Asian Development Bank,2009-12-01 Over the last several years Vanuatu has become one of the fastest growing economies in the Pacific region driven primarily by tourism construction and aid inflows The achievement of strong economic growth has also occurred on the back of improved economic policy effective fiscal management and improved environment for private sector development While recent gains have been impressive more remains to be done to sustain growth and ensure the benefits are distributed throughout the nation The Government is now on a sound financial footing and is well placed to address key development issues The report discusses options for responding to these needs with a view to helping guide public policy formulation in Vanuatu Marine Navigation and

Slow Reckoning Vassily Klimentov,2024-02-15 A Slow Reckoning examines the Soviet Union s and the Afghan communists views of and policies toward Islam and Islamism during the Soviet Afghan War 1979 1989 As Vassily Klimentov demonstrates the Soviet and communist Afghan disregard for Islam was telling of the overall communist approach to reforming Afghanistan and helps explain the failure of their modernization project A Slow Reckoning reveals how during most of the conflict Babrak Karmal the ruler installed by the Soviets instrumentalized Islam in support of his rule while retaining a Marxist Leninist platform Similarly the Soviets at all levels failed to give Islam its due importance as communist ideology and military considerations dominated their decision making This approach to Islam only changed after Mikhail Gorbachev replaced Karmal by Mohammad Najibullah and prepared to withdraw Soviet forces Discarding Marxism Leninism for Islam proved the correct approach but it came too late to salvage the Soviet nation building project A Slow Reckoning also shows how Soviet leaders only started seriously paying attention to an Islamist threat from Afghanistan to Central Asia after 1986

While the Soviets had concerns related to Islamism in 1979 only the KGB believed the threat to be potent The Soviet elites never fully conceptualized Islamism continuing to see it as an ideology the United States Iran or Pakistan could instrumentalize at will They believed the Islamists had little agency and that their retrograde ideology could not find massive appeal among progressive Soviet Muslims In this they were only partly right The Record Changer ,1955 Dodge
