The Judge Dee Novels of R.H. van Gulik J.K. Van Dover, 2014-11-18 From 1949 to 1968 author Robert van Gulik wrote 15 novels two novellas and eight short stories featuring Judge Dee a Chinese magistrate and detective from the Tang dynasty. In addition to providing the setting for riveting mysteries, Dee's world highlighted aspects of traditional Chinese culture through his personal relationships with his wives, his lieutenants, and the citizens he served with dedication on the emperor's behalf. This book gives a synopsis of each Judge Dee story along with commentary on plots, characters, themes, and historical details. Exploring van Gulik's influence on Chinese and Western detective fiction and on the image of China in popular 20th century American literature, this study brings to light a significant contributor to the development of detective fiction.

The Transculturation of Judge Dee Stories Yan WEI, 2022-09-07 This book views the Dutch sinologist Robert van Gulik's Judge Dee mysteries as a hybrid East-West form of detective fiction and uses the concept of transculturation to discuss their hybrid nature with respect to their sources, production, and influence. The Judge Dee mysteries authored by Robert van Gulik 1910-1967 were the first detective stories to be set in ancient China. These hybrid narratives combine Chinese historical figures, traditional Chinese crime literature, and Chinese history and material culture with ratiocinative methods and psychoanalytic themes familiar from Western detective fiction. This new subject and detective image won a global readership, and the book discusses the innovations that van Gulik's Judge Dee mysteries brought to both Chinese gong'an literature and Western detective fiction. Furthermore, it introduces contemporary writers from different countries who specialize in writing detective fiction or gong'an novels set in ancient China. The book will meet the interest of fans of Judge Dee stories throughout the world and will also appeal to both students and researchers of comparative literature, Chinese literature, and crime novels studies.

The Essential Mystery Lists Roger M. Sobin, 2011-09-30 For the first time in one place Roger M. Sobin has compiled a list of nominees and award winners of virtually every mystery award ever presented. He has also included many of the best of lists by more than fifty of the most important contributors to the genre. Mr. Sobin spent more than two decades gathering the data and lists in this volume; much of that time he used to recheck the accuracy of the material he had collected. Several of the best of lists appear here for the first time in book form. Several others have been unavailable for a number of years. Of special note are Anthony Boucher's Best Picks for the Year, Boucher, one of the major mystery reviewers of all time, reviewed for The San Francisco Chronicle, Ellery Queen Mystery Magazine, and The New York Times. From these resources Mr. Sobin created Boucher's Best and Important Lists to Consider, lists that provide insight into important writing in the field from 1942 through Boucher's death in 1968 This is a great resource for all mystery readers and collectors Winner of the 2008 Macavity Awards for Best Mystery Nonfiction Becoming Good Ancestors David Ehrenfeld,2008-11-04 A brilliant writer and gifted big picture thinker David Ehrenfeld is one of America's leading conservation biologists Becoming Good Ancestors unites in a single up to date framework pieces written over two decades spanning politics ecology and culture and illuminating the forces in modern society that thwart our efforts to solve today's hard questions about society and the environment The book focuses on our present day retreat from reality our alienation from nature our unthinking acceptance of new technology and rejection of the old the loss of our ability to discriminate between events we can control and those we cannot the denial of non economic values and the decline of local communities If we are aware of what we are losing and why we are losing it the author notes all of these patterns are reversible Through down to earth examples ranging from a family canoe trip in the wilderness to the novels of Jane Austen to Chinese turtle and tiger farms Ehrenfeld shows how we can use what we learn to move ourselves and our society towards a more stable less frantic and far more satisfying life a life in which we are no longer compelled to damage ourselves and our environment in which our children have a future and in which fewer species are endangered and more rivers run clean In the final chapter he offers a dramatic view of the possibilities inherent in a fusion of the best elements of conservatism and liberalism Our society has an inherent sense of what is right says Ehrenfeld and the creativity and persistence to make good things happen It is now time to apply our intelligence guided by our moral judgment to the very large problems we all face This book is an important first step Thomas Jefferson R. B. Bernstein,2005-09-15 In this definitive short biography Bernstein deftly synthesizes the massive scholarship on his subject into an insightful evenhanded account illuminating Jefferson's central place in the American Enlightenment Book jacket The Armchair Detective ,1994 Swimming Lessons David Ehrenfeld,2002 Never in history has life been so complicated and full of sudden changes Technology the environment and the way we work and relate to one another are all in upheaval With wit humor a calm voice and great authority Swimming Lessons gives a clear view of what our world has become not just our successes but also the destruction set loose by our own genius and inventions And it offers practical non utopian suggestions for keeping afloat in the dangerous waters of this 21st century globalized civilization In the first half of the book we learn to recognize the lies we live in education new military weapons systems biotechnology electronic pseudocommunities and accelerated obsolescence We also learn about the deadly corporate economics that affect every aspect of our lives even in environmental conservation The second half reveals the pitfalls and opportunities in the main tasks we face relating to nature in a manmade world and restoring our damaged communities Catalog of Copyright Entries.
