Need N2 Memorandum For 2013 Question Papers:

The Global Work of Art Caroline A. Jones, 2017-06-01 Global biennials have proliferated in the contemporary art world but artists' engagement with large scale international exhibitions has a much longer history that has influenced the present in important ways. Going back to the earliest world's fairs in the nineteenth century, this book argues that globalism was incubated in a century of international art contests and today constitutes an important tactic for artists. As world's fairs brought millions of attendees into contact with foreign cultures, products and processes, artworks became juxtaposed in a theater of nations which challenged artists and critics to think outside their local academies. From Gustave Courbet's rebel pavilion near the official art exhibit at the 1855 French World's Fair to curator Beryl Madra's choice of London-based Cypriot Hussein Chalayan for the off-site Turkish pavilion at the 2006 Venice Biennale, artists have used these exhibitions to reflect on contemporary art, speak to their own governments back home and challenge the wider geopolitical realm, changing art and art history along the way. Ultimately, Caroline A. Jones argues the modern appetite for experience and event structures which were cultivated around the art at these earlier expositions have now come to constitute contemporary art itself, producing encounters that transform the public and force us to reflect critically on the global condition. Redefining Genocide

Doctor Damien Short, 2016-06-15 In this highly controversial and original work, Damien Short systematically rethinks how genocide is and should be defined. Rather than focusing solely on a narrow conception of genocide as direct mass killing through close empirical analysis of a number of under-discussed case studies including Palestine, Sri Lanka, Australia and Alberta, Canada, the book reveals the key role played by settler colonialism, capitalism, finite resources and the ecological crisis in driving genocidal social death on a global scale.
