Lamb, Jennifer M. Parrott, 2019-03-13 As digital reading has become more productive and active the lines between reading and writing become more blurred This book offers both an exploration of collaborative reading and pedagogical strategies for teaching reading and writing that reflect the realities of digital literacies This edited scholarly collection offers strategies for teaching reading and writing that highlight the possibilities opportunities and complexities of digital literacies Part 1 explores reading and writing that happen digitally and offers frameworks for thinking about this process Part 2 focuses on strategies for the classroom by applying reading theories design principles and rhetorical concepts to instruction Part 3 introduces various disciplinary implications for this blended approach to writing instruction What is emerging is new theories and practices of reading in both print and digital spaces theories that account for how diverse student readers encounter and engage digital texts This collection contributes to this work by offering strategies for sustaining reading and cultivating writing in this landscape of changing digital literacies The book is essential for the professional development of beginning teachers who will appreciate the historical and bibliographic overview as well as classroom strategies and for busy veteran teachers who will gain updated knowledge and a renewed commitment to teaching an array of literacy skills It will be ideal for graduate seminars in composition theory and pedagogy both undergraduate and graduate and teacher education courses and will be key reading for scholars in rhetoric and composition interested in composition history assessment communication studies and literature pedagogy Reading

Literature and Writing Argument Missy James, Alan P. Merickel, 2007-02 Based on the premise that literature liberates thinking and argument disciplines it this anthology features a critical thinking analytical approach that readers in turn will apply to their own thought and writing processes Introduces and explains the tools of argument Presents reading selections centered on four enduring themes Individuality and Community Nature and Place Family and Identity and Power and Responsibility For those interested in literature composition and argumentative writing Methods for Teaching Travel Literature and Writing Eileen Groom, 2005 The contributors to Methods for Teaching Travel Literature and Writing Exploring the World and Self discuss how and why they have integrated travel literature and writing into their courses Subjects range from the study of travel literature granting insight into how travel authors such as Bill Bryson and Paul Theroux convince readers to buy into their worlds and reflect the readers positions in society to contemplating the meanings of the words traveler and tourist Other chapters examine how actual traveling can shape students writing and vice versa whereas still others address how the study of the genre and actually writing it promotes interdisciplinarity Teaching Arguments Jennifer Fletcher, 2023-10-10 No matter where students lives lead after graduation one of the most essential tools we can teach them is how to comprehend analyze and respond to arguments Students need to know how writers and speakers choices are shaped by elements of the rhetorical situation including audience occasion and purpose In Teaching Arguments Rhetorical Comprehension Critique and Response Jennifer Fletcher provides teachers with engaging classroom activities writing prompts graphic organizers and student samples to help students at all levels read write listen speak and think rhetorically Fletcher believes that with appropriate scaffolding and encouragement all students can learn a rhetorical approach to argument and gain access to rigorous academic content Teaching Arguments opens the door and helps them pay closer attention to the acts of meaning around them to notice persuasive strategies that might not be apparent at first glance When we analyze and develop arguments we have to consider more than just the printed words on the page We have to evaluate multiple perspectives the tension between belief and doubt the interplay of reason character and emotion the dynamics of occasion audience and purpose and how our own identities shape what we read and write Rhetoric teaches us how to do these things Teaching Arguments will help students learn to move beyond a superficial response to texts so they can analyze and craft sophisticated persuasive arguments a major cornerstone for being not just college and career ready but ready for the challenges of the world Composing a Community Susan H. McLeod, Margot Iris Soven, 2006-03-28 Composing a Community is not only a history of early WAC programs but also of how the people developing those programs were in touch with one another exchanging ideas and information forming first a network and then a community Composing a Community captures the stories of pioneers like Elaine Maimon Toby Fulwiler and others giving readers first hand accounts from those who were present at the creation of this new movement David Russell s introduction sets this emergent narrative into relief Susan H McLeod and Margot Iris Soven themselves pioneers in WAC history have assembled some of its most eloquent voices in this collection Charles Bazerman John C Bean Toby Fulwiler Anne Herrington Carol Holder Peshe C Kuriloff Linda Peterson David R Russell Christopher Thaiss Barbara E Walvoord and Sam Watson Their style is personal lively and informal as the authors succeed in putting their personal memories in the larger context of WAC studies
