Readings For Candle Light Memorial Services:

Funeral and Memorial Service Readings, Poems and Tributes Rachel R. Baum, 2007-11-28 Words can fail even the most articulate when called upon to speak at a loved one's funeral or memorial occasion. The bereaved desires to say something meaningful yet services are often held so quickly that there is little time to find something appropriate at the library or bookstore. This book is a collection of poetry and prose appropriate for reading at a funeral or memorial service. To assist the reader in finding a suitable passage, the book is divided into eleven chapters. There are tributes for mothers, fathers, children, spouses, and soulmates, friends, siblings, and other close relatives, soldiers and victims of war or violence, pets, and general readings appropriate for men, women, or any loved one. These selections will also prove helpful for clergy, counselors, and hospice, hospital, and funeral professionals. Appendices list resources and support organizations, and each selection is indexed by author, title, and first line. A special additional index references pieces by famous uses such as in a film, novel, or celebrity's funeral, so readers can locate a passage they remember from its context.

The Suicide Funeral (or Memorial Service) Melinda Moore, Daniel A. Roberts, 2017-05-16 To our knowledge, nothing with The Suicide Funeral or Memorial Service: Honoring Their Memory, Comforting Their Survivors scope and depth has ever been published. This is an aid to anyone who will be called upon to do a funeral for the nearly 43,000 suicides in America each year. This book is designed to assist clergy, chaplains, and other faith leaders as they develop sermons and homilies for a funeral service. Its mandate is to help those searching for inspiration, even though they may feel confused or uncertain, undertaking such a daunting assignment. Those who plan and lead a funeral service may enable family and friends to understand and participate intentionally in their grief process. Clergy can have a significant impact on how people react to the suicide, as well as provide comfort and assistance to those left behind on their journey through grief. Your leadership will influence how the suicide's bereaved are treated by others in the days, weeks, and months following the death. Because suicide does not discriminate by race, socio-economic status, or religion, a broad range of faiths and denominations are represented in this book's sermons, services, and perspectives.

The Unitarian Register, 1925 Using Common Worship: Times and Seasons part 1 David Kennedy, 2015-02-06 This invaluable guide helps all who plan worship to appreciate the rich possibilities and spiritual depth of the seasonal material for All Saints to Candlemas in Common Worship: Times and Seasons. It focuses on All Saints to the Eve of Advent, Sunday Advent, the Christmas Season, and the Epiphany Season. The main part of the guide provides a range of practical tips and illuminating case studies to encourage creative use at a local level. It also gives succinct background information both for seasons and individual major seasonal occasions, as well as for all the liturgical texts. John Sweet's introduction explains the raison d'être of Times and Seasons and provides a helpful brief introduction to the history and theology of the Christian Year.

Celebrate! Arlyn J Macdonald, 2020-10-14 What is missing in modern life is the recognition of the sacred in life Celebrate! is a resource book for individuals families and communities to integrate the sacred back into ordinary life through blessing ceremonies and rituals Sacred ceremonies are the bridge between the material and spiritual worlds reconnecting us to wholeness The ceremonies included in the book can be used by all cultures and all faiths marking important life events for children and adults as well as holidays Some are familiar ceremonies and some are new especially created for times that give meaning to life in the modern world The section on Creating Your Own Ceremonies assists readers to create personal ceremonies to mark their own life journeys The Monthly Packet of Evening Readings for Members of the English Church, 1881 Supporting Dying Children and their Families Paul Nash, 2011-01-20 This practical guide offers invaluable and sensitive advice for all who work alongside terminally ill children their families and families who have been bereaved Paul Nash helpfully describes the different types of care that are needed depending on the age of the child from baby to teenager and on the particular needs of the child's family He also provides resources to help with remembering and celebrating the life of a child including rituals that can be used in preparation for death at the time of death and at funeral or memorial services Monthly Packet of Evening Readings for Members of the English Church (earlier "for Younger Members of the English Church"), 1881 Paediatric Chaplaincy Paul Nash, Sally Nash, Mark Bartel, 2018-04-19 Drawing on a range of approaches developed by paediatric chaplaincy teams worldwide this edited collection provides best principles practices and skills of chaplaincy work with neonates infants children young people and their families By engaging with paediatric chaplaincy from an international multifaith perspective contributors from around the world and different faith traditions show what good spiritual religious and pastoral care for children and their families looks like The book contains contributions from specialists who work with children with mental health issues or profound disabilities as well as chapters that focus on how best to provide palliative and bereavement care Includes resources and activities for use in specialist care situations and tools for assessment making this a must have for any paediatric chaplaincy team working in a hospital or hospice The Death of an Adult Child Jeanne Webster Blank, 2016-11-03 This book was written to be a comfort and guide for bereaved parents whose adult child has died to show by sharing our experiences that we are not alone in our responses to our child's death that we are not weak defective in character or otherwise inadequate because of the way we grieve to spell out ways in which some of us have increased our understanding of our condition found solace dispelled guilt and anger overcome depression come to terms with survivors and memorialized our deceased children Questionnaires were sent to more than sixty bereaved parents of adult children who died and many anonymous examples from these questionnaires are used throughout the book Death and Religion in a Changing World Kathleen Garces-Foley, 2014-12-18 This comprehensive study of the intersection of death and religion offers a unique look at how religious people approach death in the twenty first century Previous scholarship has largely focused on traditional beliefs and paid little attention to how religious traditions evolve in relation to their changing social context Employing a sociological approach Death and Religion in a Changing World describes how people from a wide variety of faiths draw on and adapt traditional beliefs and practices as they deal with death in modern societies The book includes coverage of newly emerging social and religious phenomena that are only just beginning to be analyzed by religion scholars such as public shrines the role of the media spiritual bereavement groups and the use of the Internet in death practices

Delayed Impact Franklin Bialystok, 2000 In Delayed Impact Franklin Bialystok explores the evolution of the legacy of the Holocaust in the collective memory of the post war Canadian Jewish community He seeks to understand why the Holocaust's effect was relatively muted up to 1960 moved to the forefront with the rise of antisemitism in the 1960s and became a prominent concern and marker for Jewish ethnic identity after 1973 Bialystok begins by examining the years immediately following World War II showing that Canadian Jews were not psychologically equipped to comprehend the enormity of the Holocaust Unable to grasp the extent of the atrocities that had occurred in a world that was not theirs Canadian Jews were not prepared to empathize with the survivors and a chasm between the groups developed and widened in the next two decades He shows how the efflorescence of marginal but vicious antisemitism in Canada in the 1960s in combination with more potent antisemitic outrages internationally and the threat to Israel's existence led to an interest in the Holocaust He demonstrates that with the politicisation of the survivors and the maturation of the post war generation of Canadian Jews in the 1980s the memory of the Holocaust became a pillar of ethnic identity Combining previously unexamined documents and interviews with leaders in the Jewish community in Canada Bialystok shows how the collective memory of an epoch making event changed in reaction to historical circumstances His work enhances our understanding of immigrant adaptation and ethnic identification in a multi cultural society in the context of the post war economic and social changes in the Canadian landscape and sheds new light on the history of Canadian Jewry opening a new perspective on the effects of the Holocaust on a community in transition Franklin Bialystok is a part time lecturer in the Department of History at the University of Toronto and the University of Waterloo He has published numerous articles on the Holocaust in various journals and edited collections The Living Church, 1914 Death, Dying, and Grief Yan Z. Ciupak, Douglas C. Smith, 2025-05-23 This book is a groundbreaking resource that explores loss through multidisciplinary and multicultural perspectives Guided by the Spiral Model of Grieving and Healing it honors the deeply personal yet socially embedded nature of dying and grieving The book introduces the Integrative Psychosocial Model of Care providing real world cases practical tools and evidence based insights from decades of teaching research training and practice While many books focus solely on academic theories or practical tools few bridge the gap between them This book uniquely combines thanatology theories with real life cases and actionable tools providing a comprehensive guide for end of life and grief support It also maintains a compassionate and contemplative approach incorporating diverse cultural viewpoints throughout The book's 13 chapters are organized in five parts Part I An Integrative Understanding of Death Dying and Grief Part II Theories and Concepts in Loss Grief and Dying Part III Principles and Practices in End of Life and Grief Support Part IV Supporting Psychosocial Needs in End of Life and Grieving Part V Supporting Spiritual Needs in End of Life and Grieving Death Dying and Grief Theories Tools and Cases is an invaluable
