What is the God given purpose of the local church Answer Relational discipleship DiscipleShift walks you through five key shifts that churches must make to refocus on the fundamental biblical mission of discipleship These intentional changes will attract the world and empower your church members to be salt and light in their communities Over the last thirty years many influential church leaders and church planters in America have adopted various models for reaching unchurched people While many of these approaches have merit something is still missing something even more fundamental to the mission of the church discipleship Making disciples helping people to trust and follow Jesus is the church's God given mandate Devoted disciples attract people outside the church because of the change others see in their Christ like lives And discipleship empowers Christians to be more like Christ as they intentionally develop relationships with non believers Through biblical and professional insights Jim Putman and Bobby Harrington discuss the transformational effectiveness of making disciples and just how to do so in practical terms You'll learn The specific roles of a disciple making pastor The components of person to person discipleship How each ministry in your church leads to discipleship How to implement discipleship in your church Disciple making leaders will not produce perfect churches but they will create effective churches Discipleship that Fits Bobby Harrington, Alex Absalom, 2016-02-09 For far too long the church has tried to make disciples using a one size fits all approach Some churches advocate 1 on 1 discipling others try getting everyone into a small group while still others training through mission trips or service projects Yet others focus all their efforts on attracting people to a large group gathering to hear biblical teaching and preaching But does one size really fit everyone Based on careful biblical study and years of experience making disciples in the local church Bobby Harrington and Alex Absalom have identified five key relationships where discipleship happens in our lives In each relational context we need to understand how discipleship occurs and we need to set appropriate expectations for each context Discipleship That Fits shows you the five key ways discipleship occurs It looks at how Jesus made disciples and how disciples were formed in the early church Each of the contexts is necessary at different times and in different ways as a person grows toward maturity in Christ Public Relationships The church gathering corporately for worship Social Relationships Networks of smaller relationships where we engage in mission and live out our faith in community Personal Relationships Small groups of six to sixteen people where we challenge and encourage one another on a regular basis Transparent Relationships Close relationships of three to four where we share intimate details of our lives for accountability The Divine Relationship Our relationship with Jesus Christ where we grow through the empowering presence of the Holy Spirit Filled with examples and stories Alex and Bobby show you how to develop discipleship practices in each relational context by sharing how Jesus did it how the early church practiced it and how churches are discipling people today

Building a Ministry of Spiritual Mentoring Jim Grassi, 2014-04-01 There is nothing more fundamental to the Christian faith and to building godly men than discipleship In today's vernacular discipleship would best be described as Spiritual Mentoring Why are discipleship and mentoring so important How does discipleship connect to men and the struggles they face today Authentic discipleship is about developing a caring concern and a genuine love for others through modeling Christ like attitudes and behavior in the context of relational environments A fresh approach is needed to define implement and equip men with a passion to make disciples It starts with relationship Men are desperate for meaningful relationships both with God and other men Building a Ministry of Spiritual Mentoring will help churches and ministry leaders create dynamic environments for men to experience real transformation and develop authentic Christian relationships This proven method will assist your church or group in effectively developing and deploying a ministry of spiritual mentoring Features include Metaphors anecdotes and practical applications Proven tools for developing a ministry around spiritual mentoring Discussion questions

Measuring

Spiritual Maturity Randy Tompkins, 2019-10-21 Jesus commissioned His apostles and by extension the church to make disciples. Many church leaders have come to the conclusion that attending worship services and Bible study classes will result in making disciples. A review of statistical reports indicates a majority of church members and attenders do not believe this process will work or they have come to the conclusion they do not want to become disciples. The 2010 US Religion Census report indicated 79% of the 150,686,156 members, children, and other attenders did not attend worship services. It also reported over 60% of the same group did not attend Bible study classes. In 2014, one of the major denominations in the United States reported 63% of church members did not attend worship services and 62% did not attend Bible study classes. There are literally thousands of spiritual surveys available to church leaders. A majority of these surveys develop conclusions based on a single survey being administered or two surveys being administered several months apart. If a disciple making process is to be effective, there needs to be a method of measuring the progress of individuals moving toward spiritual maturity. This type of measurement would produce a visual of spiritual growth, spiritual decline, or spiritual non-growth. The only way to measure the spiritual progress of an individual is to create a measurement of the various elements of the spiritual life. The process of measuring spiritual maturity in this book is self-contained within the participating church, and the responses of the participating individuals are highly confidential and warehoused by the participating church. Am I really a sinner? Mark Schonebaum, 2024-08-14 Are you really a sinner? When asked this question, most people will say that they are a good person without stopping to think that even good people can be sinners. In fact, we are all sinners, but the problem is that many of us simply don't know what sin is, which is what the author explores in this book. Get answers to questions such as: How can we define what sin truly is? How does sin hurt us and our relationships? How can we eliminate sin? What must we do to find salvation from sin? The author emphasizes that to follow Jesus, you must follow everything, not just what you like. The whole purpose of following Jesus is to align with God, not for God to align with you. God not only tells us that we are sinners, but He sent Jesus to cleanse us of all sin. We are no longer condemned by our sin; we are set free in Jesus. Youth Ministry Bi-Vocational Survival Guide Rick Flann, 2016-04-27 Youth Ministry Bi-Vocational Survival Guide is written specifically for the bi-vocational pastor and is chock full of nuggets of gold. Authors Rick Flann and Chris Pope explain how to manage time well, prioritize effectively, and lead in a way that empowers both the bi-vocational pastor and those they lead and care for on a daily basis. The Apostle Paul, a tent maker, was one of the greatest people ever to walk the face of this earth. He knew what his mission was, and he was willing to do whatever it took to accomplish the task that God had set before him. Paul was bi-vocational. He proclaimed the Gospel, planted churches, and pastored people, yet he never demanded his right to a paycheck from the church. 1 Cor 9:12. Maybe you are a modern-day tent maker, but unlike the Apostle Paul, who always seemed to come out on top as a spiritual super star, you are sinking under the pressures of multiple jobs, both inside and outside of the church, school, family, or countless other obligations that you face each and every day. Take courage and know that you are not alone.

The Youth Ministry Bi Vocational Survival Guide was developed especially with you in mind to enable you to succeed and still minister effectively to those you are leading Seeing through Spiritual Eyes Kirk Farnsworth, 2014-09-22 Bring the otherworldly mystery of spiritual reality down to earth Understand how Satan can gain entry into the personal lives of Christians Learn how to find peace in church conflict without having to flee fake it or fight back Put an end to toxic memories from a painful past Experience meaningful life in the Spirit Brotherhood Matthew Parker, 2023-10-27 If our sons are to fulfill their God given destinies we must make them understand and translate for them the things that matter most Colin Pinkney Society can play a cruel role in lowering the expectations for young Black men But the truth is God designed every life to be valuable and called each of us to a purpose Everyone can live in that reality by focusing on the things that matter faith values and perseverance This book provides a message of hope for Black men and those who love them Forty devotional insights and personal stories written by Black men will inspire you to view life through a biblical lens knowing that your life matters and that you can grow in your God given abilities The authors share how they have been discipled and trained now passing their wisdom on to others in these true stories of success failure and overcoming The Spiritual Mentor Jim Grassi, 2013-11-26 There is nothing more fundamental to the Christian faith and to building godly men than discipleship In today's vernacular discipleship would best be described as Spiritual Mentoring Why are discipleship and mentoring so important How does discipleship connect to the struggles men face today Discipleship is a relational process that requires people to become actively involved in their faith Devoted and active men can change the direction of our culture Most importantly God has commanded men to be the leaders in the home church and community Authentic discipleship is about developing a caring concern and a genuine love for others through modeling Christ like attitudes and behavior in the context of relational environments A fresh approach is needed to define implement and equip men with a passion to make disciples It starts with relationship Because it all starts with the individual we must see one on one discipleship as the primary objective to begin the revolution The Spiritual Mentor will explain how men can rescue their faith and how spiritual mentors must play a critical role in bringing the church back to its original purpose Features include Metaphors anecdotes and practical applications Practical tools for becoming a spiritual mentor Discussion questions Dr Jim Grassi has captured the essence of what is happening today with men in the church and defined logical and practical steps to get back on course of men gaining a closer relationship with God in the mentoring and discipleship process Dr Grassi illustrates the how to thru practical examples of situations we all know and can relate Dr Grassi sets the tone for a modern day Haggai in being strong and staying courageous putting in the effort by serving and working at the process and lastly knowing that God never leaves your side and is always with you This book is a must read and must have for reference of every men's ministry leader Darrel Billups NCMM Executive Director Our men's small group just finished reading and discussing The Spiritual Mentor We found the book to be challenging informative and very practical The stories and illustrations are captivating giving insight into
