Critical Geopolitics and Regional (Re)Configurations Heriberto Cairo,Breno Bringel,2019-05-31 This book seeks to develop our understanding of the contemporary geopolitical reconfigurations of two regions of the world system with high cultural affinity and traditional close relations Latin America and Europe Relations between Latin America and Europe have been interpreted generally in the social sciences as synonyms of interstate relations However although States remain the most important actor in the geopolitical scene they have been deeply reconfigured in recent decades impacted by transnational dynamics politics and spaces This book highlights interregional relations and transnational dynamics between Latin America and Europe from a critical geopolitics perspective promoting a new look for interregional relations which encompasses international cooperation and development global policies borders inequalities and social movements It brings attention to the relevance of interregionalism in the current geopolitical reconfiguration of the world system but also argues for systematic inclusion of relevant new social actors and imaginaries in this traditional sphere of states These social actors particularly social movements and practices of contestation are developing not only international bonds but a new transnational field where networks defy traditional territorial orders This volume seeks to generate a new discussion among scholars of geopolitics international relations social theory and social movement studies by encouraging a development of an interregional and transnational perspective of the two regions Buenas prácticas para la docencia del Derecho adaptada al ECTS Eva María Rubio Fernández,Magnolia Pardo López,MERCEDES. Performance Susan L. Fischer, 2009 Spanish Golden Age plays take their place at the forefront of world theatre Oscar Wilde once observed that it is the spectator and not life that art really mirrors This thought is borne out in this volume which brings together two different and often mutually exclusive constituencies the academic critic and the theatre practitioner In looking at the ways in which theatre is a barometer of society the essays in this book form part of a larger theoretical inquiry into performance as interpretation contingent upon the cultural context Engaging with theoretical approaches to culture and theoreticians from Elam to Brook and from Derrida to Bakhtin the author analyzes in detail productions of plays by Lope de Vega Tirso de Molina and Calder n dela Barca as well as an adaptation of Rojas Celestina on the Spanish or French or Anglo American stage Two chapters deal with appropriations of Shakespeare s Merchant of Venice in translation on the Spanish and French boards As they read performance in trans national productions these essays are not only at the cutting edge of theatre studies on the foreign stage but they also bring Spanish Golden Age plays long neglected by professional directors of the classics because of the lack of a continuous performance tradition closer to assuming their rightful place amongst the great theatre of the world SUSAN L FISCHER is Professor of Spanish and Comparative Literature at Bucknell University
