Recognising Early Literacy Development Cathy

Nutbrown, 1997-08-28 This book examines the literacy development and assessment of children before the age of five years It is highly relevant to all those professionally involved in assessment Cathy Nutbrown explores the need for appropriate assessment practice to support teachers and illustrates the mismatch between the way teachers and researchers assess literacy The book is worth buying for the final chapter alone which provides an analysis of the newly developed Sheffield Early Literacy Development Profile The actual tasks are included in the appendices Thus Cathy Nutbrown does not leave us frustrated We are able to consider an ongoing assessment which is in tune with the best practice in teaching This is a research text which b

What Is Extinction? Joshua Schuster, 2023-02-21 WINNER 25th ANNUAL SUSANNE M

GLASSCOCK BOOK PRIZE Life on Earth is facing a mass extinction event of our own making Human activity is changing the biology and the meaning of extinction What Is Extinction examines several key moments that have come to define the terms of extinction over the past two centuries exploring instances of animal and human finitude and the cultural forms used to document and interpret these events Offering a critical theory for the critically endangered Joshua Schuster proposes that different discourses of limits and lastness appear in specific extinction events over time as a response to changing attitudes toward species frailty Understanding these extinction events also involves examining what happens when the conceptual and cultural forms used to account for species finitude are pressed to their limits as well Schuster provides close readings of several case studies of extinction that bring together environmental humanities and multispecies methods with media specific analyses at the terminus of life What Is Extinction delves into the development of last animal photography the anthropological and psychoanalytic fascination with human origins and ends the invention of new literary genres of last fictions the rise of new extreme biopolitics in the Third Reich that attempted to change the meaning of extinction and the current pursuit of de extinction technologies Schuster offers timely interpretations of how definitions and visions of extinction have changed in the past and continue to change in the present Basic Concepts of Aristotelian Philosophy

Martin Heidegger, 2021-12-22 This volume presents Heidegger's 1924 Marburg lectures which lay the intellectual groundwork for his magnum opus Being and Time Here are the seeds of the ideas that would become Heidegger's unique and highly influential phenomenology Heidegger interprets Aristotle's Rhetoric and looks closely at the Greek notion of pathos These lectures offer special insight into the development of his concepts of care and concern being at hand being in the world and attunement which were later elaborated in Being and Time Available in English for the first time these lectures make a significant contribution to ancient philosophy Aristotle studies Continental philosophy and phenomenology
