Scharer, 2003 Strategies for helping children read with ease confidence and understanding Cover Journal Writing in Second Language Education Christine Pearson Casanave, 2011-02-04 Journal writing is not new journals have been around for centuries More recently journals have been viewed as a means of scaffolding reflective teaching and encouraging reflectivity in research processes As a result some educators may ask What more do we need to know Those likely to raise this question are probably not thinking of the explosive growth of reflective writing enabled by social networking on the Web the blogs and other interactive e vehicles for reflection on experiences in our literate real and virtual lives This revisiting of journal writing from a 21st century perspective informed by relevant earlier literature is what Christine Pearson Casanave guides readers through in this first book length treatment of the use of journal writing in the contexts of language learning pre and in service teaching and research Casanave has put together existing ideas that haven't been put together before and has done it not as an edited collection but as a single authored book She has done it in a way that will be especially accessible to teachers in language teacher education programs and to practicing teachers and researchers of writing in both second and foreign language settings and in a way that will inspire all of us to think about not just do journal writing Those who have never attempted to use journals in their classes and own lives as well as others who have used it with mixed results will probably be tempted to try it in at least some of the venues Casanave provides guidance for Those already committed to journal writing will very likely find in this book new reasons for expanding and enhancing their use of journals A Guide for Using the Call of the Wild in the Classroom Philip Denny, 1995-05 Includes sample lesson plans pre and post reading activities a biographical sketch of the author book summary vocabulary list and suggested vocabulary activities book report ideas research ideas a culminating activity options for unit tests bibliography and answer key A Guide for Using The Outsiders in the Classroom Patty Carratello, John Carratello, 1992 Teaching literature unit based on the popular children's story The outsiders A Guide for Using Charlie and the Chocolate Factory in the Classroom Concetta Doti Ryan, 1993 Curriculum connections vocabulary unit tests critical thinking Cover Reader Response in Secondary and College Classrooms Nicholas J. Karolides, 2013-04-15 This text based on Louise M Rosenblatt's transactional model of literature focuses on the application of transactional reader response theory in the classroom It grows from frequent requests from secondary school and college teachers for teaching suggestions on how to put theory into practice This is not a What should I do on Monday cookbook but an expression of the practice of theory in college and secondary school classrooms The chapters portray a spectrum of strategies including biopoems expressive and imaginative writing journal writing readers theater role playing and unsent letters using as examples individual works from several genres Recognizing that teachers who may have been trained in other theories and methodologies may be hesitant about their quite different role and expectations in the reader centered classroom the authors provide stepping stones to develop readiness and confidence suggestions and insights to ease the transition to the transactional model of teaching and learning Pedagogical features An explanatory introduction to each section defines its orientation and describes the content and direction of the chapters it contains. Invitations elicit engagement of readers with concepts, attitudes, or strategies presented in the chapters; they invite readers as individuals or members of a small group to consider ideas or to practice a strategy among other activities in order to enhance understandings. A glossary defines key concepts and strategies discussed in the text. A bibliography provides an extensive list of resources: books and journal articles, both theoretical and applied. New in the second edition: Six new chapters; three deal with the roles of film as literature in the English classroom and three with enhancing multicultural understandings. Updates and revisions to several chapters that appeared in the first edition. Invitations new in this edition have been added to focus and expand readers' thinking.

A Guide for Using The Mouse and the Motorcycle in the Classroom Deborah Shepherd-Hayes, 1996. Curriculum connections, vocabulary, unit tests, critical thinking. Cover A Guide for Using Old Yeller in the Classroom Michael H. Levin, 1993. Includes sample lesson plans, pre and post reading activities, a biographical sketch of the author, book summary, vocabulary list, and suggested vocabulary activities, book report ideas, research ideas, a culminating activity, options for unit tests, bibliography, and answer key.
