 Indiana State Board of Health,1924 Reuben's Fall Sheri L. Leafgren,2016-06-16 This study offers a lens on two kindergarten classrooms examining moments of disobedience as children interacted with children their teachers and the space and time elements of the classroom environments Through Eisner's educational criticism author Sherry Leafgren also examines the elements of school kindergarten and teachers within the spaces of their intersections with the children While past research has directed our attention to addressing the problem of classroom disobedience Leafgren provides an opportunity and means to view these familiar actions through fresh lenses of possibilities Predicated by an event in the researcher's teaching life she utilizes Deleuze and Guattari's rhizoanalysis to openly seek lateral paths of understanding by linking and folding the findings with texts other than those that would be normally used toward developing new understandings and questions regarding children's disobediences An earlier version of this book was awarded the Making our Schools the Best in the World M. Scott Norton, 2019-04-10 This book answers the questions on what must be done to meet the educational goals required to maintain our democratic form of government provide the knowledge and skills required for our free enterprise system and to give each individual as Lincoln said an unfettered start and fair change in the race of life The old cliché outside the box represents major changes and needed re imagination of what education in our country must do to remain viable No one has a magic wand to make such improvements just happen What is needed is revolutionary program interventions that result in what all thinking citizens in America seek a public school education program that is the best of all worlds Equity Visits Rachel Roegman, David Allen, Larry Leverett, Scott Thompson, Thomas Hatch, 2019-08-07 Because equity and instruction are inextricably bound Why are equity visits such a critical first step to increasing opportunity and access for our under served students Because they take instructional rounds to a new level providing a powerful lens for investigating the intersections of equity and instruction After all how can we possibly deliver equitable learning experiences opportunities and outcomes for our students without first pinpointing problems of practice That's where Equity Visits will prove absolutely indispensable to district and school administrators It details how to combine a strong focus on instruction with explicit intentional efforts to address systemic inequities Inside you will find A range of data collection activities and tools to target central issues of equity in your school Clear guidelines on how to investigate the ways instructional practices structures and beliefs lead to inequitable educational experiences and how these are often masked in the day to day life of schools and districts A frank discussion of how to make race and racism an explicit part of investigating and addressing educational inequities Voices of school and district leaders who have taken crucial first steps to become equity warriors Recommendations on how to develop policies initiatives and practices to confront those inequities Few dispute that instructional improvement must be a central focus of educational leadership but for too long achieving educational equity has been absent from the conversation Here is your opportunity to ensure equity occupy a central spot in data collection and analysis and be explicitly discussed at all levels of your school or district organization In short essential reading and doing for all administrators The Spectator ,1861 Psychology Don H.
