The known history of the river begins with Genghis Khan and the rise of the Mongolian empire a millennium ago and the story of the region has been one of aggression and conquest ever since The modern history of the river is the story of Russia's push across the Eurasian landmass to China For China the Amur is a symbol of national humiliation and Western imperial land seizure to Russia it is a symbol of national regeneration its New World dreams and eastern prospects The quest to take the Amur was to be Russia s route to greatness replacing an oppressive European identity with a vibrant one that faced the Pacific Russia launched a grab in 1854 and took from China a chunk of territory equal in size nearly to France and Germany combined Later the region was the site for atrocities meted out on the Russian far east in the twentieth century during the Russian civil war and under Stalin The long shared history on the Amur has conditioned the way China and Russia behave toward each other and toward the outside world To understand Putin's imperial dreams we must comprehend Russia's relationship to its far east and how it still shapes the Russian mind Not only is the Amur a key to Putinism its history is also embedded in an ongoing clash of empires Story Parade, 1952 with the West The Dragon from Chicago Pamela D. Toler, 2024-08-06 For fans of unheralded women's stories a captivating look at Sigrid Schultz one of the earliest reporters to warn Americans of the rising threat of the Nazi regime No other American correspondent in Berlin knew so much of what was going on behind the scene as did Sigrid Schultz William L Shirer author of The Rise and Fall of the Third Reich We are facing an alarming upsurge in the spread of misinformation and attempts by powerful figures to discredit facts so they can seize control of narratives These are threats American journalist Sigrid Schultz knew all too well The Chicago Tribune s Berlin bureau chief and primary foreign correspondent for Central Europe from 1925 to January 1941 Schultz witnessed Hitler's rise to power and was one of the first reporters male or female to warn American readers of the growing dangers of Nazism In The Dragon From Chicago Pamela D Toler draws on extensive archival research to unearth the largely forgotten story of Schultz's years spent courageously reporting the news from Berlin from the revolts of 1919 through the Nazi rise to power and Allied air raids over Berlin in 1941 At a time when women reporters rarely wrote front page stories and her male colleagues saw a powerful unmarried woman as a freak Schultz pulled back the curtain on how the Nazis misreported the news to their own people and how they attempted to control the foreign press through bribery and threats Sharp and enlightening Schultz's story provides a powerful example for how we can reclaim truth in an era marked by the spread of disinformation and claims of fake news

Byzantine intrigue and momentous historical issues The impact of Americans on China during the war was enormous Much of U S activity in China because of inadequate knowledge of China's culture government and military capabilities was harmful to China and Chiang's regime Moreover U S efforts to induce Chiang to make reforms designed to improve his regime's war effort and chances for post war survival were ineffective The sulfurous American General Joseph Stilwell assigned to serve as Chiang's chief of staff underestimating the fighting ability of the Japanese and disregarding Chiang's advice followed a strategy in the first Burma campaign that contributed to the loss of Chiang's best divisions and the chance of holding north Burma Stilwell's obsessive demand for a new Burma campaign involved him in bitter controversies with Chiang the British and U S Air Commander Claire Chennault When the British demanded that Stilwell be removed from Burma he with Roosevelt's support demanded that Chiang turn over to him the command of China's armed forces which was equivalent to control of China But Americans could not enforce this demand on Chiang who expelled Stilwell from China Ambassador Patrick Hurley then attempted to arrange a coalition government between Chiang and the Communists a proposal Chiang rejected At Roosevelt's insistence Chiang allowed America to send U S personnel the Dixie Mission to the Communist headquarters at Yennan Mao Tse Tung convinced Foreign Service Officer John Service and others that he sought a cooperative relationship with America in order among other reasons to reduce his dependence on Russia Before Stilwell's dismissal Americans had decided to arm the Communists but the removal of Stilwell defeated that purpose and U S aid continued to go exclusively to Chiang It appeared that the ideological preferences of Americans brought about a postponement of cooperation with the ultimately victorious Chinese Communists despite an eventual common interest in keeping Soviet influence in East Asia in check This comprehensive study is illustrated and includes a chronology glossary bibliography and index BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved
