Palestinian Women and Popular Resistance Liyana Kayali, 2020-11-09 This book explores Palestinian women's views of popular resistance in the West Bank and examines factors shaping the nature and extent of their involvement Despite the signing of the Oslo peace accords in 1993 and 1995 the Occupied Palestinian Territories in the contemporary period have experienced tightened Israeli occupational control and worsening political humanitarian security and economic conditions Based on ethnographic fieldwork conducted with women in the West Bank this book looks at how Palestinian women in the post Oslo period perceive negotiate and enact resistance It demonstrates that far from being apathetic as some observers have charged Palestinian women remain deeply committed to the goals of national liberation and wish to contribute to an effective popular resistance movement Yet many Palestinian women feel alienated from prevailing forms of collective popular resistance in the OPT due to the low levels of legitimacy they accord them This alienation has been made stark by the gendered and intersecting impacts of expanding settler colonialism tightening spatial control a professionalised and depoliticised civil society reinforced patriarchal constraints Israeli and Palestinian Authority PA repression and violence and a deteriorating economy all of which have raised the barriers Palestinian women face to active participation Undertaking a gendered analysis of conflict and resistance this volume highlights significant changes over the course of a long running resistance movement Readers interested in gender and women s studies the Arab Israel conflict and Middle East politics will find the study beneficial

Israel's Military Operations in Gaza Marouf Hasian Jr, 2016-03-31 Civilians in Gaza and Israel are caught up in complex violent situations that have overstepped conventional battle lines Both sides of the conflict have found ways to legitimate the use of violence and continually swap accusations of violations of domestic and international humanitarian laws Israel s Military Operations in Gaza provides an ideological critique of the legal military and social media texts that have been used to legitimate historical incursions into the Gaza with special focus on Operation Protective Edge It argues that both the Palestinians and the Israelis have deployed various forms of telegenic warfare They have each used argumentative rhetorics based on competing interpretations of events and are locked in a battle to convince international audiences and domestic constituencies of the righteousness of their causes This critical genealogical study analyses a range of texts and images from selfies circulated near the Gaza border to judicial opinions produced by the High Court of Israel With its multidisciplinary approach and original analysis of the Israel Gaza situation this book will be of interest to students and scholars of Middle East studies and the Arab Israeli conflict as well as security studies and communication studies

The Red Planet Bill Hatcher, 2024-04-16 We humans have an extraordinary capacity for compassion much of it in response to the atrocities we inflict on the planet its animals and each other The popular explanation for this paradox is that we evolved as carnivorous killer apes who gradually curbed our lust for violence with frequent exceptions by implementing humane social norms This explanation is so well worn especially in the American psyche that it epitomizes cliché So we could be forgiven for believing it when nearly every word is fiction Current research shows that our original biological and social programming is nonviolent So what changed What

Lordship and Liberation in Palestine-Israel Muhannad Ayyash, 2025-07-22 This interdisciplinary book provides timely fresh perspective on Palestine Israel by rethinking the nature of settler colonial sovereignty and the relationship between land and people Muhannad Ayyash argues that this relationship comes in two distinct forms a settler colonial type practiced by the Israeli state that consists of lordship over land and people and a decolonial type seen in Palestinian popular organizing that he calls land as life a reciprocal bond The former is characterized by private ownership possession and violent expulsion of others the latter by communal ownership belonging to the land and opposition to the violence of expulsion Ranging widely across theory and history Ayyash contends that the opposition between these two types is at the core of the Palestinian Israeli struggle The choice before us today he concludes is between the continuation of the Israeli settler colonial project in particular and the project of colonial modernity in general or the commencement of a decolonial age in Palestine Israel and beyond Offering both novel theorizations and politically engaged analysis Lordship and Liberation in Palestine Israel illuminates how decolonial sovereignties represent an alternative to settler colonial violence

Truffles and Trash Kelly Alexander, 2024-10-25 On a fragile planet with spreading food insecurity food waste is a political and ethical problem Examining the collaborative sometimes scrappy institutional and community efforts to recuperate and redistribute food waste in Brussels Belgium Kelly Alexander reveals it is also an opportunity for new forms of sociality Her study plays out across a diverse set of locations including a food bank with ties to the EU a social restaurant serving low cost meals made from supermarket surplus by an emergent immigrant labor force and a social inclusion program in an urban market with a zero food waste pop up caf Alexander argues that these efforts in concert with innovative policy effectively recirculate wasted food to new publics and produce what she terms a spectrum of edibility According to Alexander these models face challenges including reproducing the very power dynamics across race class and citizenship status they seek to circumvent They also mirror the challenges of the everyday operations of the European social welfare state which is increasingly reliant on NGOs to meet provisioning promises Yet she finds that they also move the needle forward to reduce food waste across one city providing an example for major urban centers around the world

Israel/Palestine Paul Drew Paul, 2020-01-07 Since the early 1990s Israel has greatly expanded a system checkpoints walls and other barriers in the West Bank and Gaza that restrict Palestinian movement Israel Palestine examines how authors and filmmakers have grappled with the spread of these borders Focusing on the works of Elia Suleiman Raba i al Madhoun Ghassan Kanafani Sami Michael and Sayed Kashua it traces how political engagement in literature and film has shifted away from previously common paradigms of resistance and coexistence and has become reorganised around these now ubiquitous physical barriers Depictions of these borders interrogate the notion that such spaces are impenetrable and unbreakable imagine distinct forms of protest and redefine the relationship between cultural production and political engagement

Palestinian Literature and Film in Postcolonial Feminist Perspective Anna Ball, 2012 Palestinian Literature and Film in Postcolonial Feminist Perspective is the first sustained study of gender consciousness in the Palestinian creative imagination Drawing on concepts from postcolonial feminist theory Ball analyses a range of literary and filmic works by major creative practitioners including Michel Khleifi Liana Badr Annemarie Jacir Elia Suleiman Mona Hatoum and Suheir Hammad and reveals a hitherto unrecognized trajectory in gender consciousness under development in the Palestinian imagination from the start of the twentieth century The book explores how these works resonate with questions of power identity nation resistance and self representation in the Palestinian imagination more broadly and asks how these gender conscious narratives transform our understanding of Palestine's struggle for postcoloniality Working at the cusp of postcolonial feminist and cultural enquiry Ball seeks to open up vital new directions in the interdisciplinary study of Palestine
