Language, Identity and Diversity in Picturebooks Nicola Daly, 2024-10-28 This book presents a range of perspectives on the way language diversity and identity are reflected in New Zealand children's literature based on the published research of Nicola Daly an associate professor in the Division of Education of the University of Waikato and her colleagues The book is organised into two sections The first section examines the use of Te Reo M ori and English in the text of New Zealand picturebooks exploring the linguistic landscape of M ori English bilingual picturebooks The second section The Pedagogical Potential of Picturebooks explores how picturebooks featuring M ori English New Zealand Sign Language NZSL and Pacific languages reflect identity and support diversity in society Research from several educational contexts ranging from kindergarten to university where picturebooks are used to support learning language and learning about language is also discussed Themes of language identity and diversity are explored throughout the two sections and brought together in the concluding chapter's discussion of the power of picturebooks This book will be of interest to scholars in children's literature and education it may also be relevant to scholars in linguistics library and information studies cultural studies and media and communication studies

The Politics of English Language Education and Social Inequality Maya Kalyanpur, Padmini Bhuyan Boruah, Sarina Chugani Molina, Sunaina Shenoy, 2022-12-30 Based on policy analysis and empirical data this book examines the problematic consequences of colonial legacies of language policies and English language education in the multilingual contexts of the Global South Using a postcolonial lens the volume explores the raciolinguistics of language hierarchies that results in students from low income backgrounds losing their mother tongues without acquiring academic fluency in English Using findings from five major research projects the book analyzes the specific context of India where ambiguous language policies have led to uneasy tensions between the colonial language of English national and state languages and students linguistic diversity is mistaken for cognitive deficits when English is the medium of instruction in schools The authors situate their own professional and personal experiences in their efforts at dismantling postcolonial structures through reflective practice as teacher educators and present solutions of decolonial resistance to linguistic hierarchies that include critical pedagogical alternatives to bilingual education and opportunities for increased teacher agency Ultimately this timely volume will appeal to researchers scholars academics and students in the fields of international and comparative education English and literacy studies and language arts more broadly Those interested in English language learning in low income countries specifically will also find this book to be of benefit to their research

Fundamental Considerations in Technology Mediated Language Assessment Karim Sadeghi, Dan Douglas, 2023-04-27

Fundamental Considerations in Technology Mediated Language Assessment aims to address issues such as how the forced integration of technology into second language assessment has shaped our understanding of key traditional concepts like validity reliability washback authenticity ethics fairness test security and more Although computer assisted language testing has been around for more than two decades in the context of high stakes proficiency testing much of language testing worldwide has shifted to at home mode and relies heavily on the mediation of digital technology making its widespread application in classroom settings in response to the COVID 19 outbreak unprecedented Integration of technology into language assessment has brought with it countless affordances and at the same time challenges both theoretically and practically One major theoretical consideration requiring attention is the way technology has contributed to a reconceptualization of major assessment concepts constructs There is very limited literature available on the theoretical underpinnings of technology mediated language assessment This book aims to fill this gap This book will appeal to academic specialists practitioners or professionals in the field of language assessment advanced and or graduate students and a range of scholars or professionals in disciplines like educational technology applied linguistics and teaching English to speakers of other languages TESOL

China-Africa Relations Kathryn Batchelor, Xiaoling Zhang, 2017-06-26 The recent rapid growth in China's involvement in Africa is being promoted by both Chinese and African leaders as being conducted in a spirit of cooperation friendship and equality In the media and informally however a different less harmonious picture emerges This book explores how China and Africa really regard each other how official images are manufactured and how informal images are nevertheless shaped and put forward The book covers a wide range of areas where China Africa exchange exists including diplomacy technological cooperation sport culture and arts exchange The book also discusses the historical development of the relationship and how it is likely to develop going forward
