Praxis of Retelling Parables and Miracles Beschi Jeyaraj, 2023-02-09 A bible theological didactic is not principally reduced to learning and teaching Bible alone but rather extended to understanding and interpreting Bible in one's own religious and pedagogical context Bible didactic moreover does not circumscribe itself only to biblical knowledge in virtue of deducing some abstract and moral principles but it rather prospects to strengthen and reconstruct one's identity within the choices offered by culture and context This book aims to engage in an intercultural interpretation of the parables and the miracles of Jesus by dialoging with the culture of Tamils This comparative study subsequently proposes an alternative synchronic hermeneutic in biblical didactics replacing a deep seated diachronic model in Tamil land It also develops a model of synculturation superseding fossilised model of inculturation This book capitalises Tamils texts and narratives of masses reflected in the archives of Tamil literatures and legends in the process of theologisation Bearing on the aesthetics of parables and miracles and contextual reading of them this study brings forward the world in front of the text leaving behind the conventional exegesis of the world behind the text

There's a Woman in the Pulpit Rev. Martha Spong, 2015-04-02 Be informed and inspired, delighted and supported, encouraged and entertained by stories and prayers from the unique perspectives of clergywomen. In ministry we constantly balance the sacred and the ordinary, juggling the two as expertly as we manage a chalice and a baby bottle. Even as we do things as simple as light the candles, set the table, break the bread and pour the wine, we invite people into a holy moment. The women in this book not only have a wellspring of deep wisdom but they also have the ability to dish out their knowledge with side-aching humor. I am thrilled that their great wisdom and intelligence will be bound into the pages that I can turn to lend and appreciate for years to come. From the Foreword by Rev. Carol Howard Merritt, learn and laugh with these women of the church bound together by a deep commitment to ministry as they reveal what it really means to be a woman in the pulpit. Over fifty clergywomen representing fourteen denominations share the details of their intimidating balancing act, juggling the isolating expectations of perfection from their congregations and the shared human realities of everyday life. Intended for laypeople, women hearing a call to ministry, and clergy of all denominations, these stories and prayers will resonate with, challenge, encourage, and amuse anyone who has a passion for their work and faith. Testament Sketches for Children Gillette Elvgren, 2021-06-04 Dreaming with the Angels Glenn D. Bridges, 2015-08-11 Dreaming with the Angels caters to young readers with a theme that focuses on God's use of angels and dreams in foretelling, celebrating, warning, and sharing the birth, death, resurrection, and ascension of His Son, Jesus Christ. Its composition is presented in a brief, factual, chronological, and Scripture-based approach on about a sixth-grade level as to why Jesus came to this planet in human form more than two thousand years ago. It is also ideal as a supplement to curricula offered for private Christian academies and homeschooling. Whether or not we've had a personal encounter with angels or a vision sent by God, there is no reason Christians can't dream about their future life of paradise in heaven with God the Father, Son, and Holy Ghost along with a multitude of angels and fellow believers. Clueless in Galilee Mac Barron, 2018-10-19 READER ALERT Three things to know about this book before you buy it: 1.
