Explanation

There are many advantages to working abroad, but chief among them is the experience of being in a completely new environment. It is clear that people are attracted to the sense of adventure that comes from moving to a new land and being among new stimuli. In these environments, people have to learn a new language, adapt to a new culture, try new foods, and meet new types of people. All of this is tremendously exciting and provides a great opportunity for developing as a person and learning new things. People who spend a year or more living abroad usually feel that they have grown as a person during this critical experience.
