Extract is taken from the Faber 2001 version.

Task

- There are no capital letters, speech marks, full stops or commas in this passage. Can you put these in the right places?
- Can you also show how you would split this passage into four paragraphs (not counting indentations for direct speech)?
- First, put in the missing punctuation and then, with a partner, decide where the paragraphs should go.

the iron man stood up straight slowly he turned till he was looking directly at hogarth we're sorry we trapped you and buried you shouted the little boy we promise we'll not deceive you again follow us and you can have all the metal you want brass too aluminium too and lots of chrome follow us the iron man pushed aside the boughs and came into the lane hogarth joined the farmers slowly they drove back down the lane and slowly with all his cogs humming the iron man stepped after them they led through the villages half the people came out to stare half ran to shut themselves inside bedrooms and kitchens nobody could believe their eyes when they saw the iron man marching behind the farmers at last they came to the town and there was a great scrap-metal yard everything was there old cars by the hundred old trucks old railway engines old stoves old refrigerators old springs bedsteads bicycles girders gates pans - all the scrap iron of the region was piled up there rusting away

Monographs in Education University of Iowa. College of Education, 1926 Aspects of Language Development in an Intensive English Program Alan Juffs, 2020-03-02 While there is much in the literature on ESL development this book is the first of its kind to track the development of specific language abilities in an Intensive English Program IEP longitudinally and highlights the implications of this particular study's findings for future IEP implementation and practice and ESL and SLA research The volume draws on many years worth of data from learners at an IEP at the University of Pittsburgh to explore selected aspects of language development including lexical grammatical speaking and writing abilities in addition to placement assessment practices and student learning outcomes A concluding chapter points to the ways in which these findings can be applied to decision making around IEP curriculum development and the future role of IEPs in higher education more broadly With its focus on students in IEP settings and the concentration on data from students evaluated over multiple semesters this volume offers a unique opportunity in which to examine longitudinal developmental patterns of different L1 groups on a variety of measures from the same learners and will be key reading for students and researchers in second language acquisition English for Academic Purposes language education and applied linguistics Catalog Southwestern Indian Polytechnic Institute,1994 Interactive Learning: Daily Sentence Editing Grd 6 Teacher Created Resources,2011 Use these fully interactive products to teach students important skills in grammar punctuation and spelling The self correcting activities work on ALL brands of interactive whiteboards The PC Mac CD provides 180 to 270 ready to edit sentences per grade In addition thousands more sentences and paragraphs can be created and saved The book format makes it easy for teachers to see the entire scope of the product at a glance and to copy pages as needed for individual work
