Paper Topics George Orwell:

"Shooting an Elephant" of George Orwell - Short Story or Essay on the Essence of Colonialism? Swantje We, 2011-04-27
Seminar paper from the year 2010 in the subject English Language and Literature Studies Literature grade 1.5 University of Vechta Institut für Geistes und Kulturwissenschaften language English abstract This paper deals with Orwell's text Shooting an Elephant. I use the term text deliberately since my topic says George Orwell Shooting an Elephant Short Story or Essay on the Essence of Colonialism. The question of genre has been debated for decades and there have been several quarrels about allocating it to a certain genre. Most experts however call the text an essay but there are also those who insist on the text belonging to the group of the short stories. In my paper I will work out features of both genres and at the end of my study I will sum up the findings and draw a conclusion. First I will give a short definition of the terms Short Story and Essay. This is to show the characteristics of the two genres that I will pick up again in the course of this paper. After a brief summary I will start the analysis of the text working out topics like parallels to Orwell's life, the meaning of the elephant or the construction of the text. In the final part I will sum up my results and draw a conclusion. George Orwell Mark Connelly, 2018-10-24
George Orwell 1903-1950 is one of the most influential authors in the English language. His landmark novels Animal Farm 1945 and Nineteen Eighty-Four 1949 have been translated into many foreign languages and inspired numerous stage and film adaptations. His well-known essays A Hanging and Shooting an Elephant are widely anthologized and often taught in college composition classes. The writer is credited with inventing the terms Big Brother, thought crime, unperson, and double think. His name itself has become an adjective: Orwellian. Seventy years after its publication Nineteen Eighty-Four remains very popular, its sales surging in an era of enhanced surveillance and media manipulation. This literary companion provides an extensive chronology and more than 175 entries about both his literary works and personal life. Also included are discussion questions and research topics, notable quotations by Orwell, and an extensive bibliography of related sources. 24

So, You Have to Write a Literature Review Catherine Berdanier, Joshua Lenart, 2020-09-28 Is a literature review looming in your future Are you procrastinating on writing a literature review at this very moment If so this is the book for you Writing often causes trepidation and procrastination for engineering students issues that compound while writing a literature review a type of academic writing most engineers are never formally taught Consider this workbook as a couch to 5k program for engineering writers rather than runners if you complete the activities in this book from beginning to end you will have a literature review draft ready for revision and content editing by your research advisor So You Have to Write a Literature Review presents a dynamic and practical method in which engineering students typically late career undergraduates or graduate students can learn to write literature reviews and translate genre based writing instruction into easy to follow bite sized activities and content Written in a refreshingly conversational style while acknowledging that writing is quite difficult Catherine Berdanier and Joshua Lenart leverage their unique disciplinary backgrounds with decades of experience teaching academic engineering writing in this user friendly workbook

The Pedagogy of Adaptation Dennis Cutchins, Laurence Raw, James M. Welsh, 2010-02-23 From All Quiet on the Western Front and Gone with the Wind to No Country for Old Men and Slumdog Millionaire many of the most memorable films have been adapted from other sources And while courses on film studies are taught throughout the world The Pedagogy of Adaptation makes a strong case for treating adaptation studies as a separate discipline What makes this book unique is its claim that adaptation is above all a creative process and not simply a slavish imitation or reproduction of an original This collection of essays focuses on numerous contexts to emphasize why adaptations matter to students of literature It is the first such volume devoted exclusively to teaching adaptations from a practical teacher centered angle Many of the essays show how adaptation as a discipline can be used to prompt reflection on cultural historical and political differences Written by specialists in a variety of fields ranging from film radio theater and even language studies the book adopts a pluralistic view of adaptation showing how its processes vary across different contexts and in different disciplines Defining new horizons for the teaching of adaptation studies these essays draw on such disparate sources as Frankenstein Moby Dick and South Park This volume not only provides a resource book of lesson plans but offers valuable pointers as to why teaching literature and film can help develop students skills and improve their literacy

The Analytical Writer Adrienne Robins, 1995-09 In The Analytical Writing Adrienne Robins explains college writing as a process of discovery as a series of strategies that any college student can learn to apply All strategies explained in this text are based on sound theories of teaching writing and on the patterns of successful writers Writing and thinking should not be separated and presenting only the steps without the accompanying explanation of how they influence thinking would be of little more help than having no method at all By using this text the students will see as they plan draft and revise how their writing helps clarify their thoughts This clearly written and engaging textbook is illustrated by real examples of student writing and appropriate cartoons The second edition was revised and updated based on the large scale evaluation of the first edition completed by professors and students The new edition reflects four essential values recognizing the diversity of writing processes the necessity of peer and teacher interaction with the writer on drafts the integration of writing and reading and the appropriate uses of technology Specific features of this second edition include new writing samples electronic citation formats updated library use chapter with technological guidance concise paragraph chapter revised
