Gerry Czerniawski Professor of Education University of East London UK An excellent contribution to the Teacher Education and development literature Many of the authors are leading thinkers in their field and as such the book offers a significant breadth depth and coherence to the teacher development discourse Professor David Spendlove School of Environment Education and Development The University of Manchester UK Wasted Education John D. Skrentny,2023-11-17 We are living in an era of veritable STEM obsession Not only do tech companies dominate our cultural imagination of American enterprise and financial growth we urgently need science based solutions to impending crises As a society we have poured enormous resources into cultivating young minds for STEM careers The US sponsors 209 distinct STEM education programs in 13 different federal agencies at a cost of more than 3 billion This spending is on top of countless initiatives from philanthropic foundations and corporate giving And yet we are facing a STEM worker crisis In this project sociologist John D Skrentny asks if we re investing so much in STEM education why are as many as 75% of graduates with STEM degrees opting out of STEM careers The problem is not education he argues but the available jobs Skrentny aims to bring a reality check to America s growing dedication to STEM education Each chapter highlights an aspect of STEM work culture that drives away bright minds ranging from workplace culture and burn and churn management practices to lack of job security to the constant need for training on new innovations to the racism and sexism that exclude non white and Asian people and women Skrentny shows that if we have any hope of crafting science based solutions to many of our most urgent societal issues we have to change the way we re treating these workers on whom our future depends BATES' Guide to Physical
