Politics & Social Justice Ernest Emenyonu, 2014. This special issue focuses on literary texts by African writers in which the protagonist returns to his/her original or ancestral home in Africa from other parts of the world. Ideas of return, intentional and actual, have been a consistent feature of the literature of Africa and the African diaspora from Equiano's autobiography in 1789 to Chimamanda Ngozi Adichie's 2013 novel Americanah. African literature has represented returnees in a range of locations and dislocations, including having a sense of belonging, being alienated in a country they can no longer recognize or experiencing a multiple sense of place. Contributors writing on literature from the 1970s to the present examine the extent to which the original place can be reclaimed with or without renegotiations of home. Articles on Nuruddin Farah, Chimamanda Ngozi Adichie, Pedie Hollist, Ayi Kwei Armah, Dinaw Mengestu, Benjamin Kwakye. Interview with Tendai Huchu. Featured Articles by Bernth Lindfors, Eustace Palmer, Helen Chukwuma. Literary supplement: four poems by Tsitsi Ella Jaji.

The Epic Structure of Space 1999 John K. Balor, 2018-02-18. This book contains transcripts from Online Alpha discussions where the epic and narrative structure of SPACE 1999 is being discussed by comparing episodes with themes, characters and elements of plot from the Homeric Odyssey and Lewis Carroll's stories about Alice. The discussion is motivated by questions raised in the scholarly literature and earlier Online Alpha debates about how to make sense of SPACE 1999 from the viewpoint of critical theory. The book has been developed on an idealistic basis. It is sold at the lowest price the publisher was willing to accept. A free e-book version can be downloaded at www.lulu.com.

Experimenting the Human G Douglas Barrett, 2023-01-13. Beyond the modernist project of subjecting sound parameters to the deterministic human control exemplified by serialism, experimentalism has used indeterminacy, beginning with chance and natural processes and later incorporating computer algorithms, biofeedback and AI in ways that mirror posthumanism's challenge to the centrality of human agency. Through a series of six intimate studies of works by Alvin Lucier, Nam June Paik, Pamela Z and Laetitia Sonami, Barrett places posthuman thought in dialogue with works of experimental music surveyed from the 1960s to the present. In addition to studies of individual musical works, he illustrates existing exchanges between experimental music and cybernetics.

theorists since the 1950s and links this dialogue to posthumanist theory beginning in the 1990s for which those very cyberneticists were a primary point of departure Your Brain Is God Timothy Leary, 2001-09-11 This collection of essays written by the poster boy of 1960s counterculture describes the psychological journey Timothy Leary made in the years following his dismissal from Harvard as his psychedelic research moved from the scientific to the religious arena He discusses the nature of religious experience and eight crafts of God including God as hedonic artist Leary also examines the Tibetan Buddhist and Taoist experiences In the final chapters he explores man as god and LSD as sacrament Bowker's Complete Video Directory 1996 R R Bowker Publishing, 1996 The Poetical Works of William Wordsworth William Wordsworth, 1882 Poetical Works William Wordsworth, 1882 Spectres from the Past Portia Owusu, 2019-11-22

Spectres from the Past The History of Slavery in West African and African American Narratives examines the merit of the claim that West African writers in comparison to African Americans authors deliberately expunge the history of slavery from literary narratives The book explores slavery in contemporary West African and African American literature by looking at the politics of history and memory It interrogates notions of History and memory by considering the possibility that shared traumas such as West African and African American experiences of slavery can be remembered and historicised differently according to critical factors such as socio economic realities cultural beliefs and familial traditions At the heart of the book are compelling and new readings of slavery in six literary narratives that draws on cultural philosophies musicology and linguistics to demonstrate diverse and unusual ways that Black writers in West Africa and North America write about slavery in literature The Poetical Works William Wordsworth, 1882
