The UN Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Discrimination Against Women and its Optional Protocol Patricia Schulz, Ruth Halperin-Kaddari, Beate Rudolf, Marsha A. Freeman, 2022-12-01 This volume is the fully revised and updated version of the first comprehensive commentary on the Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Discrimination against Women and its Optional Protocol It reflects the developments during the decade following the publication of the first edition in 2012 which has also seen a notable rise in individual complaints more than 85 ten new General Recommendations and six new inquiry procedures as well as numerous statements partly in conjunction with other UN human rights bodies The Convention is a key international human rights instrument and the only one exclusively addressed to women It has been described as the United Nations landmark treaty in the struggle for women s rights At a time when the backlash against women s human rights and the concept of gender based discrimination is increasingly challenged by governments and powerful societal actors the Commentary is an important instrument to hold all state powers to account on their international obligations under the Convention The Commentary analyses the interpretation of the Convention through the work of its monitoring body the Committee on the Elimination of Discrimination against Women It comprises detailed analyses of the Preamble and each article of the Convention and of the Optional Protocol including a separate chapter on the cross cutting substantive issue of violence against women The sources relied on are the treaty language and the general recommendations concluding observations and case law under the Optional Protocol individual complaints and inquiries through which the Committee has interpreted and applied the Convention Each chapter is self contained but the Commentary is conceived of as an integral whole The book also includes an introduction which provides an overview of the Convention and its embedding in the international law of human rights as well as the most recent challenges to women s human rights worldwide

The Future of Management Education Stéphanie Dameron, Thomas Durand, 2017-11-15 This book discusses the challenges facing business schools and management education systems around the world Based on documented descriptions of institutional and competitive dynamics in the industry of management education the authors show how management education is going through major changes such as new governance and business models mergers and acquisitions internationalisation of faculty and students coexisting with entrenchment in local markets ever more needs for financial resources development of distant and blended learning and increasing pressure for research output to boost rankings With concerns surrounding the sustainability of current trends in faculty salary inflation social acceptability of higher fees cost of distance learning and the risk of an academic industry divide around knowledge produced by management research The Future of Management Education develops an analysis of business models and discusses strategic implications for stakeholders The second volume extends the discussion to a total of 23 countries to bring a genuinely global perspective and move away from the Euro centric outlook The countries covered in the second volume include China Brazil Russia Singapore and France Electronics & Communication Engineering VOLUME-1 YCT Expert Team , All India PSC AE PSU Electronics Communication Engineering VOLUME 1 Previous Years Chapter wise and Sub topic wise Objective Solved Papers Investment case for tobacco control in Vanuatu United Nations Development Programme,World Health Organization,2024-06-20 A key support for FCTC 2030 project countries is the development of a WHO FCTC investment case These investment cases analyze the health and economic costs of tobacco use as well as the potential economic benefits that can come from implementing key WHO FCTC measures Focusing on the economic rationale for tobacco control the WHO FCTC investment cases provide policymakers and other stakeholders with country level evidence to inform tobacco control policy making The investment case for Vanuatu was prepared under the FCTC 2030 project in close collaboration with governments of FCTC 2030 project countries the Convention Secretariat UNDP and WHO Greenland in Arctic Security Marc Jacobsen,Ulrik Pram Gad,Ole Wæver,2024-02-13 Greenland has increasingly captivated imaginations around the globe Yet while it is central to the Arctic region its role has been poorly understood Greenland in Arctic Security delivers a comprehensive overview of how security dynamics unfold in and in relation to Greenland Each individual chapter analyzes specific discourses and dynamics pertaining to hard or soft security questions These span from great power interests in geostrategic infrastructure to domestic debates centered on promoting and protecting Greenland identity when engaging with the outside world In addition the book offers perspectives on other security questions that have been catalyzed by the effects of climate change By combining these different analyses Greenland in Arctic Security provides new theoretically informed discussions on how security politics can manifest across different scales and territorial borders At times these politics can have consequences beyond their original intent With Greenland geopolitics and securitization theory of current interest to political and academic debates this book offers timely insights for readers Children's Environmental Rights Under International and EU Law Francesca Ippolito,2022-11-07 This book is dedicated to a topic which has for a long time lacked the attention it deserves within the academic world It intends to address in a coherent and comprehensive manner the problem of the environmental rights of the child which are not identical to the ones of adults whose environmental rights have been appraised from a general point of view In the absence of any international law instrument explicitly granting a child the right to a clean environment drawing on an extensive and original analysis of the UN Convention on the Rights of the Child and the practice of its monitoring body this book undertakes an assessment of the extent to which these challenges may be overcome through a greater engagement between international law on the rights of the child and international environmental law The result is the first comprehensive study on the manner in which these two mutually reinforcing legal regimes can interact to strengthen the protection of children s environmental human rights at stake in the increased strategic environmental and climate litigations at both the national and international level The book is recommended reading for amongst others policy makers international environmental lawyers and human rights lawyers and practitioners Additionally lecturers students and researchers from a range of disciplines will also gain from seeing how new legal scholarship and intertwined branches of international law contribute to the continual development of the living rights of the human rights conventions Francesca Ippolito is Associate Professor of International Law in the Department of Political and Social Science of the University of Cagliari Italy She holds the Jean Monnet Chair on European Climate of Change REACT for 2021 2024 The Report: Peru 2017 Oxford Business Group, Over the last decade Peru has consistently been the fastest growing economy in Latin America and unlike some of its neighbours has been remarkably resilient to global headwinds registering positive growth rates for an uninterrupted 18 years through to 2016 While the pace of growth has slowed as the long commodities boom ebbed after 2012 Peru recorded an average annual growth rate of 5.9% in 2005-15 almost double the 3% rate for Latin America as a whole Stakeholders and investors will now be looking to efforts by the new government which took office in July 2016 to address problems implement additional reforms and spur further economic growth Review of the state of the world fishery resources Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations, Arthur, R., 2024-09-18 The FAO Fishery and Aquaculture Circular C942 Revision 4 C942 Rev 4 provides a comprehensive overview of the global status of inland capture fisheries This review analyzes trends of inland capture fisheries at global continental and subcontinental levels highlighting the crucial role these fisheries play in food security nutrition employment and local economies By placing inland capture fisheries in the context of global fish production this study also illustrates of their adaptive nature their enduring relevance and potential to contribute to global development goals Additionally the publication addresses four key thematic areas crucial for the future of inland fisheries data quality their contribution to food systems integration with basin management and the enhancement of fisheries management practices Republic of the Marshall Islands International Monetary, International Monetary Fund. Asia and Pacific Dept, 2023-10-16 Real GDP declined by 4.5 percent in FY2022 due entirely to a decline in fisheries However excluding the sector growth was 4.2 percent fueled by a recovery in domestic demand Inflation has picked up due to higher food and fuel prices while the current account surplus narrowed as COVID related grants declined and the trade deficit widened The Great Music City Andrea Baker, 2019-03-01 In the 1960s as gentrification took hold of New York City Jane Jacobs predicted that the city would become the true player in the global system Indeed in the 21st century more meaningful comparisons can be made between cities than between nations and states Based on case studies of Melbourne Austin and Berlin this book is the first in depth study to combine academic and industry analysis of the music cities phenomenon Using four distinctly defined algorithms as benchmarks it interrogates

Richard Florida's creative cities thesis and applies a much needed synergy of urban sociology and musicology to the concept mediated by a journalism lens Building on seminal work by Robert Park Lewis Mumford and Jane Jacobs it argues that journalists are the cultural branders and street theorists whose ethnographic approach offers critical insights into the urban sociability of music activity
