Vut 2015 Prospectors:

Prospecting Ocean Stefanie Hessler, 2019-12-17 Investigating the entanglement of industry politics culture and economics at the frontier of ocean excavations through an innovative union of art and science The oceans are crucial to the planet's well-being. They help regulate the global carbon cycle, support the resilience of ecosystems and provide livelihoods for communities. The oceans as guardians of planetary health are threatened by many forces including growing extractivist practices. Through the innovative lens of artistic research Prospecting Ocean investigates the entanglement of industry politics culture and economics at the frontier of ocean excavation. The result is a richly illustrated study that unites science and art to examine the ecological cultural philosophical and aesthetic reverberations of this current threat to the oceans. Prospecting Oceans takes as its starting point an exhibition by the photographer and filmmaker Armin Linke which was commissioned by TBA21 Academy London and first shown at the Institute of Marine Science CNR ISMAR in Venice. Linke is concerned with making the invisible visible and here he unmask the technologies that enable extractions from the ocean including future seabed mining for minerals and sampling of genetic data. But the book extends far beyond Linke's research presenting the latest research from a variety of fields and employing art as the place where disciplines can converge. Integrating the work of artists with scientific theoretical and philosophical analysis Prospecting Ocean demonstrates that visual culture offers new and urgent perspectives on ecological crises.

Birds of Nunavut James M. Richards, Anthony J. Gaston, 2018-08-15 Nunavut is a land of islands encompassing some of the most remote places on Earth. It is also home to some of the world's most fascinating bird species. The windswept tundra rocky shorelines and icy waters of this thinly populated land are integral to the survival of numerous breeding and non-breeding birds including the colourful King Eider the stately Snowy Owl the spritely Snow Bunting and the globe spanning Northern Wheatear. Birds of Nunavut is the first complete survey of every species known to occur in the territory. It is co-written by a team of eighteen experts who have conducted a combined total of 300 seasons of fieldwork in Nunavut. They document 295 species of birds of which 145 are known to breed in the territory presenting a wealth of information on identification distribution ecology behaviour and conservation. Lavishly illustrated with over 800 colour photographs and 155 maps it is a visually stunning reference work on the birds that live in and visit Nunavut.

Far Off Metal River Emilie Cameron, 2015-06-01 Far Off Metal River examines how explorer Samuel Hearne's account of the alleged 1771 Bloody Falls massacre in the Central Arctic has shaped ongoing colonization and economic exploitation of the North. As Emilie Cameron demonstrates the Arctic has for centuries been treated like a blank page onto which a long line of explorers missionaries anthropologists resource companies and politicians have inscribed stories that serve their own interests. These stories have played a central role in shaping the region including efforts to open the North to industrial resource extraction. Consequently Qablunaat non-Inuit non-Indigenous people have a responsibility to question their relationships with the North and northerners first by placing these stories within their proper historical geographical and social context and then by developing new understandings and new relationships that reflect the actual political cultural economic environmental and social landscapes of the contemporary Arctic

Evans, Charles W Smith, 2015-03-27 Over the past thirty five years Canada's provinces and territories have undergone significant political changes Abandoning mid century Keynesian policies governments of all political persuasions have turned to deregulation tax reduction and government downsizing as policy solutions for a wide range of social and economic issues Transforming Provincial Politics is the first province by province analysis of politics and political economy in more than a decade and the first to directly examine the turn to neoliberal policies at the provincial and territorial level Featuring chapters written by experts in the politics of each province and territory Transforming Provincial Politics examines how neoliberal policies have affected politics in each jurisdiction A comprehensive and accessible analysis of the issues involved this collection will be welcomed by scholars instructors and anyone interested in the state of provincial politics today
