Matter Mary Kay Blakely,Amanda Dahling,2016-12-31 Newspapers and magazines have been steadily shrinking and more and more former subscribers have gone to digital and internet sources for the news Yet it has become increasingly clear that short takes don t satisfy many readers who still long for nuanced long form journalism By providing examples of classic magazine articles by professional writers all of whom are graduates of the Missouri School of Journalism this book fulfills the need for more sophisticated thought provoking essays that will resonate with both the general reader and students The book is divided into three broad categories profiles first person journalism and personal memoirs and includes the original articles as well as a postscript by the writers in which they discuss what they ve learned about writing journalism and the business of getting published Useful for students and instructors in writing programs the book also appeals to writers interested in both the art and the craft of successful writing Billboard ,1995-01-28 In its 114th year Billboard remains the world s premier
