Library of Parliament, 1857 Glorious Failure Robert Ivermee, 2025-07-10 This is a powerful new account of a chapter in history that is crucial to understand yet often overlooked For 150 years from the reign of Louis XIV to the downfall of Napoleon France was an aggressive imperial power in South Asia driven by the pursuit of greatness and riches Through their East India company and state the French established a far reaching empire in India only to see their dominant position undermined by conflict with Indian rulers competition from other European nations and a series of fatal strategic errors Exploding the myth of a benign French presence on the subcontinent Robert Ivermee s extensive research reveals how France s Indian empire relied on war making conquest opportunistic alliances regime change and slavery to pursue its ambitions He considers influential French figures reactions to the collapse of the imperial project not least their deployment of new ideas like freedom and the rights of man to justify fresh ventures of domination even as colonial authorities failed to acknowledge the equality of French India s diverse indigenous peoples both before and after the French Revolution From great power rivalry to informal empire and entrenched inequalities Glorious Failure tackles topics that remain vital and urgent in today s world “A” General Collection of the Best and Most Interesting Voyages and Travels in All Parts of the World John Pinkerton, 1814 Traveling to Unknown Places Lloyd S. Kramer, 2024-09-23 Traveling to Unknown Places presents a compelling incisive analysis of how French and American writers reshaped their personal and collective identities as they traveled in foreign countries after the social upheavals of the eighteenth century Atlantic revolutions Delving into the experiences of renowned figures like Flora Tristan and Margaret Fuller alongside lesser known postrevolutionary travelers this book illuminates how cross cultural encounters pushed writers to redefine their views of nationality language race slavery gender religion science and political ideologies Lloyd Kramer deftly demonstrates how unsettling journeys challenged cultural preconceptions and fostered introspective writings that transcended geographical boundaries By interweaving the perspectives of women and men whose travels led them far beyond their youthful social origins Kramer unveils a rich tapestry of evolving selfhood ambition and political consciousness across the Atlantic world Each traveler s experience was unique but long journeys connected all these nineteenth century writers with others who had traveled before and trips into unknown distant cultures also carried travelers toward previously unknown places within themselves Catalog of the Library of the Mercantile Library Association of San Francisco Mercantile Library Association (San Francisco, Calif.).
