Powerpoint For Refugee Sunday:

Refugee Countdown Bob Cowin, 2019-12-02 Refugee Countdown presents the questions and dilemmas ordinary people faced in deciding whether to sponsor refugees and how to go about doing so. It's an insider's story of what actually happened rather than an outsider's prescription of what is supposed to happen. It relates aspects of the refugee crisis and the church that challenge North American stereotypes. Blocked from bringing Syrian refugees into the United States, members of a Seattle church help a family enter Canada instead, raising enough funds to support them for a year while they learn English and a new culture. Refugee Countdown describes the project's origin in 2016 and the evolution of a partnership with the Canadian church that became the formal refugee sponsor. It portrays the learning, waiting, and preparations over a two-year period until the family is finally cleared to leave their place of exile in Lebanon. The story is told from the perspective of the Canadian partners and ends with the family's arrival in Vancouver. The focus is on the experiences of the sponsors, not those of the Orthodox Christian refugees. Along with identifying the broad range of considerations in resettling refugees, Refugee Countdown touches on the numerous resources and support services available. It presents a fuller and more balanced framework for thinking about refugees than appears in much political discourse and shares a warm story of developing friendships and bumps along the way. The underlying theme is that refugee sponsorship should be about more than just rescuing hurting people, especially when resettlement is a mere drop in the bucket of the world's displaced peoples. A successful sponsorship is reciprocal, enlarging the worldviews, humanity, and skill sets of the sponsors. And from the sponsors, these benefits ripple into the broader community. Community as Church, Church as Community Michael

Plekon, 2021-07-22 Parishes of all denominations are in decline, shrinking, closing, dying. We know that there are increasing numbers young and older who are religiously "nones" and "dones." This book explores why the decline is taking place, why the distancing is going on. But it goes on to examine parishes from all over the country and from various church bodies that are resurrecting. The central theme of death and resurrection shapes the analysis of parishes covered. Parishes are resurrecting by reinventing their ministries, by repurposing their buildings to better serve their neighborhoods, thus replanting and reconnecting with them. All of this is the Spirit's doing, but through the community of sisters and brothers who make up each congregation of faith. Community as the core of church is the other reality shaping the book's reflection. And community, a parish being with those around, living for more than its own survival, are visions for going forward. Other aspects of congregational life are also examined, most importantly the pastors: how they serve when budgets shrink, how they are trained, how pastors act with the community, not above it. No recipes are suggested for parish resurrection, but the stories of the parishes that have revived bear within them numerous lessons for us in the future. Medicine Melissa Williams, 2006 This book gives the inside story about careers in medicine, with real doctors talking about real jobs and real experiences. It provides a thorough exploration of the many clinical and non-clinical career paths available in medicine. Adapted from back cover Be
