

Public Relations Proposal Template

Whether you are responding to a formal Request for Proposals (RFP) that was advertised on a public relations (PR) website or if you received a request directly from a client, this template will help you create a clear, comprehensive PR proposal. If you are responding to an RFP, be sure to adapt this template to meet the specific requirements outlined in the instructions.

Executive Summary

If your PR proposal is longer than just a few pages, it is a good idea to include an executive summary. An executive summary provides an overview of each of the sections in the proposal. It should be no longer than one or two pages.

Understanding

This section should provide a summary of the background research you have completed. Begin by giving a brief overview of the state of the customer's industry. List the key players and their main activities.

Then, describe the public relations or marketing issue the customer is facing. Consider why they released this RFP and what their specific needs are.

Proposed Solution

Explain how your organization is prepared to meet the customer's needs. Highlight the key benefits of working with your team and write persuasively to convince the customer that you are the best firm for the job.

Timeline

Provide a schedule of the major milestones in your proposed PR project. Using a graphic like the one below makes it easy for the reader to see the big picture.
