Teaching English in Africa Anderson, Jason, 2016-04-30 Teaching English in Africa is a practical guide written for primary and secondary school teachers working all over the continent. This book relates the practice of English language teaching directly to the African context. As well as covering the underlying theory of how children learn languages and how teachers can best facilitate this learning, it also provides practical resources and ideas for activities and techniques that have proved successful in English classrooms in Africa, both at primary and secondary level. It is intended to be a practical guide, so references and citations are kept to a minimum, and concepts are presented using examples that are likely to be familiar to most teachers working in Africa. If there is a bias in this book, it is towards the needs of teachers working in low resource, isolated contexts in Africa, as these teachers are so often neglected by literature on teaching methodology.

Tacitus and the Tacitean Tradition Torrey James Luce, Anthony John Woodman, 2014-07-14 In this volume, distinguished scholars from both sides of the Atlantic explore the work of Tacitus in its historical and literary context and also show how his text was interpreted in the sixteenth through eighteenth centuries. Discussed here, for example, are the ways predilections of a particular age color one's reading of a complex author and why a reexamination of these influences is necessary to understand both the author and those who have interpreted him. All of the essays were first prepared for a colloquium on Tacitus held at Princeton University in March 1990. The resulting volume is dedicated to the memory of the great Tacitean scholar Sir Ronald Syme. The contributors are G. W. Bowersock, Tacitus and the Province of Asia, T. J. Luce, Reading and Response in the Dialogus, Elizabeth Keitel, Speech and Narrative in Histories 4, Christopher Pelling, Tacitus and Germanicus, Judith Ginsburg, In maiores certamina Past and Present in the Annals, A.
