Scott, 2016-08-18 In this important book Nicholas Hartlep and Daniel Scott's detailed analyses on both visual and historical representations of Asian Americans in textbooks and teacher manuals used in our elementary and secondary schools poignantly tell us that generations of children are growing up being fed this single story about Asian Americans As Hartlep and Scott write Asian Americans have once again been constructed as the good minority that can succeed on their own and be used as a political instrument to shame the Blacks for their underachievement and their fight for equality Over and over again the media has been telling a single story about Asian Americans to the public for the past fifty years The consequence of this fabricated story is that it discourages others even Asian Americans themselves from believing in the validity of their struggles Linshi 2014 p 1

History Textbooks and the Wars in Asia Gi-Wook Shin, Daniel C. Snider, 2011-02-08 Over the past fifteen years Northeast Asia has witnessed growing intraregional exchanges and interactions especially in the realms of culture and economy Still the region cannot escape from the burden of history This book examines the formation of historical memory in four Northeast Asian societies China Japan South Korea and Taiwan and the United States focusing on the period from the beginning of the Sino Japanese war in 1931 until the formal conclusion of the Pacific War with the San Francisco Peace Treaty of 1951 The contributors analyse the recent efforts of Korean Japanese and Chinese scholars to write a common history of Northeast Asia and question the underlying motivations for their efforts and subsequent achievements In doing so they contend that the greatest obstacle to reconciliation in Northeast Asia lies in the existence of divided and often conflicting historical memories The book argues that a more fruitful approach lies in understanding how historical memory has evolved in each country and been incorporated into respective master narratives Through uncovering the existence of different master narratives it is hoped citizens will develop a more self critical self reflective approach to their own history and that such an introspective effort has the potential to lay the foundation for greater self and mutual understanding and eventual historical reconciliation in the region This book will be essential reading for students and scholars of Asian history Asian education and international relations in East Asia      Contested Curriculum Don Romesburg, 2025-04-15 Today many states have proposed so called

Don't Say Gay bills that prohibit public school teachers from mentioning LGBTQ topics in the classroom But a few states like California have taken decisive steps in the other direction They mandate inclusive education that treats LGBTQ history as essential to the curriculum At once a history of an evolving movement and an activist handbook Contested Curriculum navigates the rocky path to LGBTQ inclusive K 12 history education in the United States and recounts the fight for a curriculum that recognizes the value of queer and trans lives What began in fits and starts in activism and educational materials across the late twentieth century led to the passage of California's landmark FAIR Education Act in 2011 ensuring that LGBTQ history has a place in the K 12 classroom Historian Don Romesburg the lead scholar who worked with advocacy organizations to pass the act recounts the decades long struggle to integrate LGBTQ content into history education policy textbooks and classrooms Looking at California and states that followed its lead he assesses the challenges and opportunities presented by this new way of teaching history Romesburg s powerful case for LGBTQ inclusive education is all the more urgent in this era of anti gay book bans regressive legislation and attempts to diminish the vital role that inclusive and honest history education should play in a democratic nation
