IntroBooks,2018-02-19 World War II has been that topic of discussion for long time of period and almost everyone is already aware of that This was the global war which lasted for seven long years from the date of 1939 to 1945 the conflicts related to which were already in action Though this war ended in 1945 there were still some things which could be seen as the result of this conflict among which the one name that you can count on is Cold War This was basically the name which was given to the relationship that was noticed developing between USA and USSR Access to History: The USA & the Cold War

1945-63 [Second Edition] Oliver Edwards,2002-08-30 This second edition has been updated to take account of recent historical research into the period including up to date interpretations relating to the Cuban Missile Crisis The major issues surrounding the origins of the Cold War and its subsequent escalation into a global power struggle between the United States and the Soviet Union are examined through an accessible narrative and comprehensive selection of sources The author also provides an analysis of the extent to which the Cold War had an impact on America s political institutions and society The revised study guides provide a firm basis for answering differentiated source based and extended writing questions Summary of John Lewis Gaddis's The Cold War Everest Media,2022-03-31T22:59:00Z Please note This is a companion version not the original book Sample Book Insights 1 The war was won by a coalition of countries that were already at war with one another ideologically and geopolitically The victors would have to cease being who they were or give up much of what they had hoped to attain by fighting the war 2 The American and Russian armies which met in 1945 on the banks of the Elbe River had similarities in their birth in revolution and their global ideologies but they differed in their distrust of concentrated authority 3 The American and British governments were able to choose where when and in what circumstances they would fight which greatly minimized the costs and risks of fighting The Soviet Union on the other hand had no such advantages It had only one war and it was the most terrible one in all of history 4 The Soviet Union had one other advantage as well which was that it alone among the victors emerged from the war with tested leadership Access persist for five decades Under the omnipresent threat of nuclear holocaust the Cold War became the defining conflict of the twentieth century The second of two parts this documentary program chronicles the unrest within the Soviet bloc the Cuban Missile Crisis proxy wars in Vietnam and elsewhere Detente the Reagan Gorbachev era and the collapse of the Soviet Union and liberation of its communist satellite states The Strategic Defense Initiative and the End of the Cold War - Report on SDI, Star Wars, President Reagan, Fall of the Soviet Union, Gorbachev, Teller, ABM Treaty, and Reykjavik Summit Department of Defense,Naval Postgraduate School,U. S. Government,2017-09-16 This is a fascinating historic analysis of the fall of the Soviet Union and the end of the Cold War The Cold War s end was sudden unpredicted and the seminal event of the latter half of the twentieth century Since the disintegration of the USSR debate has centered on whom or what was responsible for the end of the conflict Perhaps no issue is as controversial as the role the U S Strategic Defense Initiative SDI played in ending the Cold War Today there are three main schools of thought concerning SDI s impact on the end of the Cold War The first sees the Strategic Defense Initiative as a primary factor in ending the conflict Another argues the initiative extended the Cold War by creating one more hurdle to the negotiations between the two superpowers A third school holds that while SDI had a positive impact on ending the Cold War it was a secondary factor The third school s position is best supported by the available evidence All of the arguments stem from several key questions The central issue concerns the question What drove Gorbachev s decision to exit the Cold War This thesis rephrases that question more narrowly What were the primary influences that motivated Gorbachev to sign the Treaty Between the United States of America and the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics on the Elimination of Their Intermediate Range and Shorter Range Missiles INF Treaty which arguably ended the conflict and to what degree were they instrumental in its signing Additional questions that will be addressed include the following Did either the Soviet Union s investment in developing countermeasures to the U S defense initiative or its own ballistic missile defense BMD system severely strain the Soviet economy Did Soviet fear of losing a new arms race in light of their economic and technological backwardness as compared to the West push them to negotiate Were there other factors that would have driven Gorbachev to exit the Cold War regardless of the Strategic Defense Initiative

War and the Color Line Thomas Borstelmann,2001 After World War II the United States faced two preeminent challenges how to administer its responsibilities abroad as the world s strongest power and how to manage the rising movement at home for racial justice and civil rights The effort to contain the growing influence of the Soviet Union resulted in the Cold War a conflict that emphasized the American commitment to freedom The absence of that freedom for nonwhite American citizens confronted the nation s leaders with an embarrassing contradiction Racial discrimination after 1945 was a foreign as well as a domestic problem World War II opened the door to both the U S civil rights movement and the struggle of Asians and Africans abroad for independence from colonial rule America s closest allies against the Soviet Union however were colonial powers whose interests had to be balanced against those of the emerging independent Third World in a multiracial anticommunist alliance At the same time U S racial reform was essential to preserve the domestic consensus needed to sustain the Cold War struggle The Cold War and the Color Line is the first comprehensive examination of how the Cold War intersected with the final destruction of global white supremacy Thomas Borstelmann pays close attention to the two Souths Southern Africa and the American South as the primary sites of white authority s last stand He reveals America s efforts to contain the racial polarization that threatened to unravel the anticommunist western alliance In so doing he recasts the history of American race relations in its true international context one that is meaningful and relevant for our own era of globalization Post-War Prosperity and Cold War Fears, 1945-1960 The Open The Open Courses Library,2019-10-16

Post War Prosperity and Cold War Fears 1945 1960 U S History The United States and the Soviet Union allies during World War II had different visions for the postwar world As Joseph Stalin premier of the Soviet Union tightened his grip on the countries of Eastern Europe Americans began to fear that it was his goal to spread the Communist revolution throughout the world and make newly independent nations puppets of the Soviet Union To enlist as many Americans as possible in the fight against Soviet domination the U S government and purveyors of popular culture churned out propaganda intended to convince average citizens of the dangers posed by the Soviet Union These fears dominated American life and affected foreign policy military strategy urban planning popular culture and the civil rights movement Chapter Outline Introduction The Challenges of Peacetime The Cold War The American Dream Popular Culture and Mass Media The African American Struggle for Civil Rights The Open Courses Library introduces you to the best Open Source Courses
