A New Government for the People

The American people were tired of the British government. They wanted a government that was made by the people. In 1776, the American people wrote the Declaration of Independence. This was the first time that the United States was a free and independent nation.

Over time, the United States has changed. The people have written new laws and the government has changed. The American people have always wanted a government that was made by the people. This is the American dream.

Americans were afraid of government. They were afraid of the British government. They were afraid of the American government. They were afraid of the future. This was especially true when they remembered the American Revolution. The American people were tired of the British government. They wanted a government that was made by the people. In 1776, the American people wrote the Declaration of Independence. This was the first time that the United States was a free and independent nation.
