Having Fun with Maps and Globes Abraham Resnick, 2000-05-26 The primary purpose of his handbook is to provide educators with a variety of proven activities to make learning map and globe skills both enjoyable and meaningful for your students The activities which include cross curriculum can be used with multiple grade levels small groups or individually Having Fun with Maps and globes is organized into six parts Part One introduces you to the basic goals of a Map and Globe Skills Program and concludes with some general Tips for Teachers Part Two provides activities for teaching the basic concepts of maps and globes Because the ability to read and make maps involves many individual skills the activities in this section are organized into several categories or subsets of skills For each subset several fully developed activities are presented along with a grab bag of additional activities that can be used in a stand alone map and globe unit or to reinforce general map skills Because map and globe skills support other curriculum areas besides social studies Part Three provides activities organized by subject area This allows you to locate the subject you are teaching and access several related map and globe skill activities Such cross curriculum tasks will reinforce art math reading science language and thinking skills For easy access all student activity sheets called Supplements in this manual are located in Part Four of the handbook Part Five lists currently available resources for teachers and students Beyond the standard lists of print materials the author has provided sources for multimedia kits and computer software that will enrich anyone s program An appendix which includes map masters a glossary of terms and comparison charts concludes the handbook Although these materials are mentioned in various activities throughout the book here they are more accessible as a reference and as a source from which to draw in developing your own lessons or an entire school program Because of the wide range of resources Having Fun with Maps and Globes provides this handbook is a wonderful companion to the supplementary materials you presently use in your school curriculum provides the ideal support for all paraprofessionals working in the general education classroom Report of the Public Schools of the State of Missouri Missouri. Department of Education, 1911 Education Today, 1995 Essential Questions in Adolescent Literacy Jill Lewis, 2009-05-04 In each chapter of this unique volume an exemplary teacher collaborates with a prominent scholar to present real world strategies for putting literacy research to work in grades 5-12. These lively dialogues tackle key questions in adolescent literacy including issues of motivation, critical thinking skills, content area writing, differentiated instruction, assessment, English language learning, and technology. Suggestions for incorporating adolescents out of school literacies and working with reading specialists and coaches show how to build connections between the classroom and wider communities. In-depth portraits of challenges and successes in the classroom, practical instructional tips, and stimulating questions for reflection make the book a valuable resource for inservice and preservice teachers.

Teaching Strategies That Create Assessment-Literate Learners Anita Stewart McCafferty, Jeffrey S. Beaudry, 2018-04-12 Your go-to guide for using classroom assessment as a teaching and learning tool. How can we bring students into the assessment process as full partners in ways that help them become owners of learning? Becoming an assessment-literate learner means understanding where you are going as a learner, where you are at now, and what you need to do to reach a learning goal. This book unpacks seven strategies of assessment for learning along with the five keys of quality assessment in a practical vision of quality assessment used to support and certify learning. With a focus on high-impact classroom practices, this book offers clear and relevant examples of assessment for learning strategies in specific subject-matter contexts. Visual learning progressions for use in a self-assessment checklist and professional development. Additional material and examples on an author-created website. When we take a balanced approach to assessment and give students the tools and skills to support their own progress, students and teachers win. This book gives you the strategies and examples to make this possible. This is the book that practitioners have been waiting for. Assessment kept simple: its importance and how to do it with plenty of support and templates to ensure success. Ken Darvall, Principal, Tema International School. Parallel Curriculum Units for Social Studies, Grades 6-12 Jeanne H. Purcell, Jann H. Leppien, 2009-10-29 There is a freshness to Purcell and Leppien's approach transforming the curriculum into a platform for active investigation of our rapidly changing world. Your learners become 21st-century social scientists as they engage in probing timely issues and problems. Heidi Hayes Jacobs, Curriculum Expert and Author, President, Curriculum Designers Inc. Design Parallel Curriculum units for in-depth learning in social studies. The Parallel Curriculum Model (PCM) as described in the best-selling book The Parallel Curriculum is a framework for developing a dynamic curriculum that helps students acquire expertise in specific subject areas. This resource deepens teachers' understanding of how to use the PCM to provide rigorous learning opportunities for students in social studies. In Parallel Curriculum Units for Social Studies, Grades 6-12, experienced teachers contribute sample social studies units that demonstrate what high-quality curriculum looks like within a PCM framework.

Covering history geography sociology and interdisciplinary studies these field tested units each contain Teacher explanations of the unit design Connections to concepts skills and standards Step by step directions for delivering the lessons and units Modification strategies and methods for assessment Use these examples to design your own units and enhance your ability to provide challenging curriculum tailored to the abilities interests and learning preferences of each learner
