Resonate The Stories We Tell Ourselves:

Resonate Christal Earle, 2014-11-30 What do you really believe about who you are Many of us might not even be sure how to answer that question We are often driven by the desire to draw conclusions on every event memory or encounter We then organize those into one of two piles good or bad Is it possible that it could be less about those experiences being good or bad and more about the story we will believe about ourselves as a result Resonate The Stories We Tell Ourselves is an invitation to ask some honest questions What do you do when life throws you off course How do you recover from loss and disappointment How do you face the fear that has haunted you for so long Where do you begin to heal and forgive when it seems too difficult The truth is that we are ultimately the ones that decide the stories we are to going to tell ourselves My story has grown to be about what I have chosen to tell myself and this is now my invitation to you to begin to do the same This is me sharing with you how there is a path out of the confusion the hurt the colossal disappointment and the discombobulated mess your life can sometimes become without your permission And along the way hilarity and heartbreak often go hand in hand Christal Earle Resonate Christal Earle, 2014-11-18 What do you really believe about who you are Many of us might not even be sure how to answer that question We are often driven by the desire to draw conclusions on every event every memory every encounter and organize it into one of two piles good or bad Is it possible that it could be less about those experiences being good or bad and more about what story we are going to choose to believe about ourselves as a result Resonate The Stories We Tell Ourselves is an invitation to ask some honest questions What do you do when life has thrown you off course How do you recover from loss and disappointment How do you face the fear that has haunted you for so long Where do you begin to heal and forgive when it seems too difficult The truth is that we are ultimately the ones that decide the stories we are going to tell ourselves My story has grown to be about what I have chosen to tell myself and this is now my invitation to you to begin to do the same This is me sharing with you how there is a path out of the confusion the hurt the colossal disappointment and the discombobulated mess your life can sometimes become without your permission And along the way hilarity and heartbreak often go hand in hand Christal Earle Resonate Christal Earle, 2014-11-30 We all tell stories but the most powerful ones we will ever tell are the ones we tell ourselves about who we are and what we are capable of creating in our world What stories are you telling yourself Christal s authenticity humour and life changing insights have captivated audiences around the world helping them understand how they can change the stories they are telling themselves that aren t serving them Resonate is full of her characteristic humour wit and hard hitting emotional insights that will challenge your beliefs about yourself and your future Through her insightful and gentle voice Christal will help you learn how to change your stories around fear pain loss shame confusion and more We are ultimately the ones that decide the stories we are to going to tell ourselves My story has grown to be about what I have chosen to tell myself and this is now my invitation to you to begin to do the same This is me sharing with you how there is a path out of the confusion the hurt the colossal disappointment and the discombobulated mess your life can sometimes become without your permission and it starts with deciding what stories you are going to tell yourself Christal Earle The Stories We Tell Joanna Gaines, 2022-11-08 AN INSTANT NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLER Imagine if all the worn out untrue painful chapters of our lives started to quiet and the beautiful unique pieces of who we are were to rise Imagine if the stories we tell brought us back to our true selves back to one another Imagine if they spoke of how we loved and lost and tried our best How we saw it all even the parts that hurt Joanna Gaines new book The Stories We Tell invites us on an authentic and deeply vulnerable journey into her story and helps shine a light on the beauty of our own guiding us to release the weights that hold us back so we may live and share our story in truth We've all dropped anchor in places that suited us for a time a city a perspective a lie we mistook as truth This book is an invitation to a kind of life where you know how to hold what you believe about yourself and the quiet worlds behind the people you pass with gracious and open hands To see your story as greater than any past or future thing but for all the beauty and joy and hope it holds today It's an invitation to take stock of the chapters you've lived the good and the bad the beautiful and the ugly glean what's gold and carry only that forward Let it slow your feet and steady your life in motion so you can see where you stand today from a new point of view No longer through weary or uncertain eyes but a lens brimming with hope The only way to break free was to rewrite my story Because something would happen every time my pen stopped It was like my soul was coming back to my body Like the deepest parts of me that got knocked around and drowned out by all the crap I let the world convince me about who I was came back to the surface And what was left was only what was real and true I was finally standing in the fullness of my story I felt hopeful I felt full Our story may crack us open but it also pieces us back together We all have a story to tell This happens to be mine every chapter a window into who I am the journey I'm on and the season I'm in right now Because this is my story maybe you won't always relate or maybe it will feel like you're looking in a mirror Whatever we have in common and whatever differences lie between us I only hope my story can help shine a light on the beauty of yours That my own soul work will stir something of your own And that by the time you get to the end of my story you're also holding the beautiful beginnings of your own A story only you can tell And I hope that you will Joanna Resonance Unni Wikan, 2024-05-31 Resonance gathers together forty years of anthropological study by a researcher and writer with one of the broadest fieldwork resumes in anthropology Unni Wikan In its twelve essays four of which are brand new Resonance covers encounters with transvestites in Oman childbirth in Bhutan poverty in Cairo and honor killings in Scandinavia with visits to several other locales and subjects in between Including a comprehensive preface and introduction that brings the whole work into focus Resonance surveys an astonishing career of anthropological inquiry that demonstrates the possibility for a common humanity a way of knowing others on their own terms Deploying Clifford Geertz's concept of experience near observations and driven by an ambition to work beyond Geertz's own limitations Wikan strives for an anthropology that sees describes and understands the human condition in the models and concepts of the people being observed She highlights the fundamentals of an explicitly comparative person centered and empathic approach to fieldwork pushing anthropology to shift from the specialist discourses of academic experts to a grasp of what the Balinese call kenah the heart thought and feeling of the real people of the world By deploying this strategy across such a range of sites and communities she provides a powerful argument that ever deeper insight can be attained despite our differences

Almost Everything Anne Lamott, 2018-10-16 From Anne Lamott the New York Times bestselling author of Dusk Night Dawn and Help Thanks Wow comes the book we need from her now How to bring hope back into our lives I am stockpiling antibiotics for the Apocalypse even as I await the blossoming of paperwhites on the windowsill in the kitchen Anne Lamott admits at the beginning of Almost Everything Despair and uncertainty surround us in the news in our families and in ourselves But even when life is at its bleakest when we are as she puts it doomed stunned exhausted and over caffeinated the seeds of rejuvenation are at hand All truth is paradox Lamott writes and this turns out to be a reason for hope If you arrive at a place in life that is miserable it will change That is the time when we must pledge not to give up but to do what Wendell Berry wrote Be joyful though you have considered all the facts In this profound and funny book Lamott calls for each of us to rediscover the nuggets of hope and wisdom that are buried within us that can make life sweeter than we ever imagined Divided into short chapters that explore life's essential truths Almost Everything pinpoints these moments of insight as it shines an encouraging light forward Candid and caring insightful and sometimes hilarious Almost Everything is the book we need and that only Anne Lamott can write

Story Work/Story Play Mary LaMont, 2023-05-02 A central assumption of narrative spirituality is that the act of retelling the story of episodes of our lives can help us better see the larger Guiding Story that God dreams for us When I can see my Guiding Story more clearly I am better able to handle crisis and transition and better able to see my true purpose Story Work Story Play lays out a four door method of spirituality that invites participants to explore their Guiding Story through four doors that correspond to the four parts of any story a main character a problem to solve the power needed to solve it and the action taken by the main character The chapter for each of these four doors provides theological psychological and scriptural foundations for the narrative method and includes up to ten to fifteen story work story play exercises the reader can use to practice the method Each chapter also includes profile stories of real people who have discovered layers of their own Guiding Stories The book ends each chapter with a Guided Visualization The book's final chapter explains how members of a narrative circle can use the narrative spirituality tools of this book to discern each one's own unique Guiding Story

Interpreting Your World Justin Ariel Bailey, 2022-09-20 Whether we interpret Scripture or culture it matters what we do not just what we think or feel How do we live with our interpretation and how do we live it out This book helps us understand how culture forms us as political actors moves us aesthetically shapes the rhythms of our lives and connects or disconnects us from God and neighbors we are called to love The goal is to be equipped to engage culture with greater fluency and fidelity in response to the triune God This short accessible introduction to the conversation between theology and culture offers a patient thoughtful and theologically attuned approach to cultural discernment It helps us grow our interpretive skill by training our intuition and giving us a slower more deliberate approach that accounts for as much of the complexity of culture as possible The book explores 5 dimensions of culture meaning power morality religion and aesthetic and shows how each needs the others and all need theology Each chapter includes distinctive practices for spiritual formation and practical application Foreword by Kevin J Vanhoozer

Life Beyond Drama Karen Sparks BA MScEd,2017-09-18 Life Beyond Drama encourages us to do the road less travelled and dive into the depths of our life stories myths and dramas in order to understand where these things come from why we engage with negative energy draining dramas how we engage in these dramas and what they actually look like Looking into any arena in life every day we can all admit that drama is everywhere We have heard so much about our thirst for healing wholeness and living the life we have always been meant to live Dramas prevent us from getting to these places This book offers us tools via a path of self reflection in everyday life which can lead us to a life beyond drama where endless potential and possibilities await

Three Pieces of Glass Eric O. Jacobsen,2020-05-05 Loneliness is increasingly recognized as a major public health crisis that is on the rise and impacting people of all ages Addressing the crisis of loneliness from a fresh perspective this book introduces belonging as an overlooked but critical aspect of a flourishing Christian life Eric Jacobsen shows how three pieces of glass the car windshield TV and smartphone are emblematic of significant societal shifts that have created a cultural habit of physical isolation We feel increasingly disconnected from the people and places around us Jacobsen explains how adopting everyday practices and making changes in our neighborhoods can help us create a sense of belonging and rediscover what belonging in a place looks like In order to effectively solve the problem of loneliness we need to recover patterns and practices of community life that encourage us to form meaningful connections with people and stories that are part of the places where we live work and worship To this end Jacobsen offers four redemptive strategies for living a more intentional and spiritual life

Present Imperfect Andrew van der Vlies,2017-05-26 Present Imperfect asks how South African writers have responded to the end of apartheid to the hopes that attended the birth of the new nation in 1994 and to the inevitable disappointments that have followed The first full length study of affect in South Africa s literature it understands disappointment both as a description of bad feeling and as naming a missed appointment with all that was promised by the anti colonial and anti apartheid Struggle a disappointment Attending to contemporary writers treatment of temporality genre and form it considers a range of negative feelings that are also experiences of temporal disjuncture including stasis impasse boredom disaffection and nostalgia Present Imperfect offers close readings of work by a range of writers some known to international Anglophone readers including J M Coetzee Nadine Gordimer Ivan Vladislavic and Zo Wicomb some slightly less well known including Afrikaans language novelists Marlene van Niekerk and Ingrid Winterbach and others from a new generation including Songeziwe Mahlangu and Masande Ntshanga It addresses key questions in South African studies about the evolving character of the historical period in which the country now finds itself It is also alert to wider critical and theoretical conversations looking outward to make a case for the place of South African writing in global conversations and mobilizing readings of writing marked in various ways as South African in order to complicate the contours of World Literature as category discipline and pedagogy It is thus also a book about the discontents of neoliberalism the political energies of reading and the fates of literature in our troubled present

Nostalgia, Religion and Popular Culture Chris

Deacy, 2025-01-09 Drawing on the event of Queen Elizabeth II's death in 2022 as a central case study this book explores the way we navigate the relationship between nostalgia and religion Focusing on the lived experiences of ordinary people and in tandem with the turn to the self discourse Deacy suggests that our relationship with nostalgia illustrates the shift from objective and transcendent value systems towards the domain of everyday experience love and loss This book revisits the way we understand religion and the secular using the medium of popular culture such as radio film TV and music to interrogate the nostalgia as religion narrative The interpersonal and social elements of nostalgia are explored such as through the way radio fostered virtual communities and played a key role regarding national religious and cultural memory during the mourning of the Queen Attention is given to how nostalgia has evolved over time and how it can be understood as a religious process which transforms our lives at a time of loss and contributes to an eschatological future

Soul of the Seasons

Melody Scout, 2019-11-03 In a world filled with conflict controversy and confusion Soul of the Seasons brings us a timely message based on an ancient medicine that is urgently needed in our modern fast paced lives Through centuries of observation the sages of Five Element theory a form of Traditional Chinese Medicine taught that the outer landscape of the natural world reveals much about the nature of our inner landscapes Encoded within the five seasons of Spring Summer Harvest Fall and Winter lies a wisdom designed to create and support balance and harmony The five fundamental elements of Five Element theory resonate in our bodies as the core emotions of Anger Joy Sympathy Grief and Fear Like the working components of a fine clock they comprise an elegant system of continuous movement growth and transformation Weaving her deeply personal stories with Five Element wisdom Melody A Scout teaches us that by developing intimate relationships with our core emotions the unique vibrations that connect us to both our bodies and the Earth we can effectively adapt and respond to life's challenges By developing a more intimate relationship with the seasons of life we can learn to effectively identify and correct our imbalances develop greater compassion integrity and honesty and to authentically and appropriately express our emotions in ways that support our highest good Soul of the Seasons offers the wisdom of a traditional model of health and harmony made current through practical and easily accessible language soul stirring exercises and thoughtful questions Encoded within the seasons of the natural world is a wisdom that teaches that Spring is the time to remember our visions to set healthy boundaries and make quality decisions Summer brings us warmth and joy through community communication and connection Harvest provides a sweet satisfaction for an abundant life and the capacity to nurture and be nurtured Fall teaches us the importance of letting go and to value and respect what is most precious to us Winter reminds us that contemplation reflection and rest are essential in the germination of new visions

Storytelling and Collective

Psychology Darren Kelsey, 2022-04-21 This book examines the work of psychological illusionist Derren Brown to understand the significance of storytelling and ancient philosophy in our society Reflecting on the social disconnection and political polarisation of recent times Darren Kelsey considers how we can rebuild a sense of collective cohesion and common good weaving together contemporary psychology with ancient Stoicism to cut through the noise of modern life Kelsey shows that Brown is more than a stage performer he is an enlightened magician who offers us guidance for navigating the challenges life throws at us using his skills and wisdom to help us better understand ourselves and enable human flourishing In this rigorous examination of Brown's work Kelsey makes a compelling case for paying closer attention to our personal cultural and political stories and beliefs to help create a better future for ourselves our communities and the planet
