around the world Alternative Visions of Post War Reconstruction is a provocative work that questions the orthodoxies of twentieth century design history This book provides a key critical statement on mid twentieth century urban design and city planning focused principally upon the period between the start of the Second World War to the mid sixties The various figures and currents covered here represent a largely overlooked field within the history of 20th century urbanism In this period while certain modernist practices assumed an institutional role for post war reconstruction and flourished into the mainstream such practices also faced opposition and criticism leading to the production of alternative visions and strategies Spanning from a historically informed modernism to the increasing presence of urban conservation the contributors examine these alternative approaches to the city and its architecture Religious Leadership Sharon Henderson

Mangion,2020-01-09 This is the first in depth study of post war female religious life It draws on archival materials and a remarkable set of eighty interviews to place Catholic sisters and nuns at the heart of the turbulent 1960s integrating their story of social change into a larger British and international one Shedding new light on how religious bodies engaged in modernisation it addresses themes such as the Modern Girl and youth culture 1968 generational discourse post war modernity the voluntary sector and the women s movement Women religious were at the forefront of the Roman Catholic Church s movement of adaptation and renewal towards the world This volume tells their stories in their own words

Catholic Almanac Felician A. Foy,1969 American Book Publishing Record ,1997 Leaving Christian Fundamentalism and the Reconstruction of Identity Josie McSkimming,2016-10-04 There is an increasing interest in the influence of religious fundamentalism upon people s motivation identity and decision making Leaving Christian
Fundamentalism and the Re construction of Identity details the stories of those who have left Christian fundamentalist churches and how they change after they have left It considers how the previous fundamentalist identity is shaped by aspects of church teaching and discipline that are less authoritarian and coercive and more subtle and widely spread throughout the church body That is individuals are understood as not only subject to a form of judgment but also exercise it with everyone seemingly complicit in maintaining the stability of the church organisation This book provocatively illustrates that the reasons for leaving an evangelical Christian church may be less about what happens outside the church in terms of the lures and attractions of the secular world and more about the experience within the community itself     Proceedings of the 17th International Symposium on Advancement of Construction Management and Real Estate Jiayuan Wang,Zhikun Ding,Liang Zou,Jian Zuo,2013-08-16 The Chinese Research Institute of Construction Management CRIOCM in collaboration with Shenzhen University SZU proudly invites all academics researchers and professionals to participate in the CRIOCM 2012 the 17th International Symposium on Advancement of Construction Management and Real Estate We will uphold and preserve the idea and tradition of pragmatism and innovation to offer an excellent academic and communication platform for academics and professionals to exchange information on the latest developments in real estate and construction management
