

QUESTION 3

World War II fundamentally shaped the post-war international system because

- ☐ The war contributed to the US and Soviet Union becoming superpowers and each had its own set of interests, interactions, and institutions.
- ☐ The war created a unified agreement that power politics should no longer shape states' foreign policies.
- ☐ The war contributed to countries of the Global South being much more influential in terms of international relations.
- ☐ The war did not prompt the creation of international institutions like World War I had generated support for the League of Nations.
