Global South Asia Madhurima Chakraborty, 2021-12-30 This book collects essays that take on the excavatory critical and generative work of rethinking the relationship between South Asia and the world In examining what kind of new relationships are uncovered between these two geopolitical groupings the chapters in this book argue that South Asian literature and literary criticism can reframe the common narrative of the powerful Global North and a disenfranchised Global South This is not always a comforting reframing since it must account for the oppressive roles that South Asian nations sometimes play in regional and intranational theatres Through myriad disciplinary groundings theoretical approaches and objects of study the essays in this book collectively argue that South Asian literature allows us to think more critically about both the liberatory possibilities of South Asia as a grouping of nations but also of ideas and aesthetics as well as the elisions that may happen under such categorization The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of the South Asia Review Children's Rights in the United States Nancy E. Walker, Catherine M. Brooks, Lawrence S. Wrightsman, 1999 The Rights of Children in the United States provides discussion on the historical and contextual perspective on the rights of children the UN Convention on the Rights of the Child and the differing views on children's rights and competencies No Place Like Home Jen Calonita, 2011-03-01 After her brilliant run on Broadway and surviving the harsh concrete jungle of New York City seventeen year old Hollywood It Girl Kaitlin Burke is back in LA starring in a sitcom with her former nemesis now BFF Sky The show is a huge success In fact maybe a little too huge Kaitlin realizes after a bad run in with aggressive paparazzi that puts her boyfriend Austin in danger Once again she wishes that she could have a normal life But what Kaitlin doesn't realize is that her Hollywood life has had a positive influence on just about everyone she loves and it takes a minor car accident and a nasty concussion to truly grasp how lucky she is In Jen Calonita's sixth and final Secrets of My Hollywood Life novel Kaitlin learns at last about the price of fame the unending upside of friendship and that there really is no place like home even if it's Tinseltown The Publishers Weekly, 1884
