Dear Grandpa,

Once a year, we have a big cycle race in the city called the Cape Argus. The Cape Argus Cycle Tour is an annual cycle race hosted in Cape Town, South Africa, usually 109 km long. It is the first event outside of Europe to be included in the Union Cycliste Internationale's Golden Bike Series. Each year hundreds of participants from all over the world come to participate.

I found your old cycling bicycle in the garage. Dad and I fixed it up. Remember when I was younger, we used to go cycling every Sunday? Now that I'm older and more robust, I have been training and competing in competitions to participate in the Cape Argus. I won most of the training races, but I am still nervous about doing such a long race.

When my school PE teacher heard of my plans, he offered to help me train because he is participating in the event this year. It has been amazing! I have greatly improved. I think I might even be getting faster than him.

The race will take place on the 22nd of August. I hope you can watch it on TV.

I can't wait for you and Grandma to visit in December.

Love
Camden
