

Project Report

Project Description

1 Project Overview

A brief description of the product to be produced, before getting into details.

2 The Purpose of the Project

2a The User Business or Background of the Project Effort

Content

content, motivation, examples and Considerations

A short description of the business being done, its context, and the situation that triggered the development effort. It should also describe the work that the user intends to do with the delivered product.

Motivation

Without this statement, the project lacks justification and direction.

Considerations

You should consider whether the user problem is serious, and whether and why it needs to be solved.

2b Goals of the Project

( Note: This item and the following one together cover the " Objectives and success criteria of the project" item specified by Bruegge & DuToit. )

Content

This boils down to one sentence, or at most a few sentences, that say why we want this product. Here is where you state the real reason the product is being developed.

 Bootcamp is a pragmatic guide for those who need to understand how to deliver projects successfully The reader journeys through a project stage by stage discovering what project managers commonly need to achieve at each step Each step is supported by tables charts tips and tools which readers may adopt or adapt to their needs and different ways of organising and delivering projects including agile approaches are considered Because theory can only get you so far a key element of the book is learning from real projects drawing on the experience of project managers working across three continents Each chapter ends with challenges to readers to reflect on their learning which can be based on a theoretical case study or their own project The result is a reflective framework that charts their learning and their project management journey from initiation to closure Project Management Bootcamp is essential reading for junior and mid level career project managers as well as any professionals who finds themselves in charge of a project and are unsure how to get the best result Students in business and management courses at undergraduate and postgraduate levels will also value its setting of theory into a practical context
