Land and Disaster Management Strategies in Asia Huong Ha, 2014-09-01 This book focuses on land and disaster governance in Asian countries. The Asian region has become increasingly vulnerable to natural disasters including floods, cyclones, storms, earthquakes, drought, typhoons, and tsunamis. Further, as a result of unsustainable changes being made in patterns of land use, catchment, and coastal zones, increasing population density, migration patterns, and the spread of consumer culture across countries, the impact of natural disasters has increased manifold. The book addresses two major concerns in this field. Firstly, it discusses topics intended to raise awareness among all stakeholders of the critical aspects of disaster management in the context of Asia. Secondly, it calls upon policymakers, researchers, academics, practitioners, private enterprises, and civil society organizations, as well as all those who have been and will be affected by natural disasters, to search for innovative and novel approaches to reducing risk and managing disasters. Equality, Education, and Human Rights in the United States Mike Cole, 2022-10-12 This book offers an uncompromising and rigorous analysis of education and human rights by examining issues related to gender, race, sexuality, disability, and social class. Written as a companion to the very successful U.K. version, this volume reflects the economic, political, social, and cultural changes in educational and political policy and practice in the United States. Offering a comprehensive look at these areas, this book is an essential resource across a wide range of disciplines and for all those interested in education, social policy, and equality. Smart

Cities, Energy and Climate Oleg Golubchikov, Komali Yenneti, 2024-07-02 Collective insight of key thought leaders in the field to clarify and reshape the vision of smart cities. Smart Cities Energy and Climate: Governing Cities for a Low Carbon Future is a seminal work that draws together insights and case studies on post-carbon urbanism across a variety of fields, from smart energy grids to active buildings, sustainable mobility, and urban design. Another objective is to foster an understanding of how digitally enhanced smart city solutions can assist energy transitions and what new developments and challenges they bring in areas ranging from urban governance to energy security. Key topics covered in this book include recent developments in urban planning, building design, and smart technologies; urban-scale digital platforms and innovation for clean energy systems; energy efficiency and net-zero policies; socio-technical and political relationships in climate-neutral cities and smart cities. Context-rich situated perspectives from Europe, Africa, and Asia. Smart Cities Energy and Climate serves as a primary reference for scholars, students, and policy makers interested in the conceptual, technical, economic, and political challenges associated with the transition towards a smart and sustainable urban future. The Political Economy of International Finance in an Age of Inequality Gerald A. Epstein, 2018 The essays in this book describe and analyze the current contours of the international financial system, covering both developed and developing countries and focusing on the ways in which the current international financial system structures and is affected by profound inequalities in the international system. This keen analysis of key topics in international finance takes a heterodox perspective with focus on the role of inequalities in power in shaping the structure and outcomes in the international sphere Elgar Concise Encyclopedia of Legal Education Fiona Cownie,Anthony Bradney,Emma Jones,2025-01-09 This Concise Encyclopedia provides a thorough overview of legal education and explores diverse topics including the use of digital skills in law schools and the intersection between law and economics and law and humanities Carefully curated it presents an invaluable survey of legal pedagogy
