- A campaign to help increase exercise in day-to-day life
 - A campaign to help the youth of America lead a healthier life style
 - A campaign about eating a healthier diet
 - A campaign to help families eat healthier meals at dinner time

2. Read the following quote.

"The physical and emotional health of an entire generation and the economic health and security of our nation is at stake." - Michelle Obama

Based on the quotation we can conclude that -

- The health of the United States depends on the physical activity
- Our country will have a better future if generations to come
- Generations to come will be safer
- Michelle Obama will help other countries around the world

3. As used in Step 2, what does the word consumption mean?

- to eat, drink, or ingest food or drink
- to eat very quickly
- wash clothes and by pouring large amounts of water on
- eat or drink with a loud noisy noise

4. Which theme below best fits the overall purpose of the passage?

Let's Move! Michelle Obama's Campaign

Let's Move! First Lady Michelle Obama launched the "Let's Move!" campaign on February 9, 2010. This campaign was created to bring attention to and end childhood obesity in the United States. The initiative has the goal of "ending the challenge of childhood obesity within a generation so that children born today will reach adulthood at a healthy weight."

"The physical and emotional health of an entire generation and the economic health and security of our nation is at stake." - Michelle Obama

The Let's Move campaign centers on five steps that will help youth enjoy lead a healthier lifestyle.

Step 1: Move Everyday - A minimum of 60 minutes of physical activity per day for every single kid will get him or her moving in the right direction. They will feel better, be less stressed, more attentive in school, and get a better night sleep, all because of one hour of physical activity.

Step 2: Try a New Protein Veggie - There are thousands of fruits and vegetables available that most kids have never tried. Beans and veggies are important for a healthy diet and kids can have more fun eating them by trying new things. Let your kids store grocery shopping with you and pick out their own fruits and veggies to try, turning a healthy lifestyle into something fun for them. Make a challenge to make the most colorful salad possible which will increase the number of nutrients they will get from it.

Step 3: Drink Lots of Water - Swap low soda in the house and increase the consumption of water. Only purchase 100% real fruit juice. If you like want something similar to a soda, then add a splash of juice into some sparkling water.

Step 4: Jumping Jacks to Kick up TV Time - The statistics for how much television kids watch per day is very high, but it is also a good opportunity to make some big changes. Try doing jumping jacks during commercial breaks and in between shows. Some thing goes for kids that spend all day on the couch, have them run up and down the stairs, do sit-ups or push-ups, stretch, or work up with their own physical activities to break up the time in front of a computer screen.

Step 5: Help Make Dinner - Plan the daily dinner

Read widely and read often create a classroom environment where independent reading thrives. Independent reading is more than just drop everything and read; it is a gateway to writing, critical thinking, discussion, and deeper learning. Author Jarred Amato, an accomplished middle and high school English teacher and founder of Project LIT Community, believes in the power of independent reading not only to turn around the reading attitudes of students but also to help them achieve huge gains in all areas of literacy, learning, and civic engagement. Many teachers have pushed aside independent reading in the time crunch to teach all the content and skills in the curriculum or because of pressure to stay true to a traditional literary canon. Instead of looking at it as either/or, Just Read It shows teachers how to make independent reading yes, and Dr. Amato's Read and WRAP write-reflect-analyze-participate framework helps teachers cultivate meaningful learning experiences with daily dedication of independent reading time, followed by writing, reflection, conversation, and community building lessons and activities. With thoughtful student-centered structures and strategies to sustain independent reading success, this book provides detailed insights on transforming the principles of access, choice, time, and community into actions. Shows how to support student interests and varied reading levels. Offers ready to go activities to initiate Read and WRAP routines at the start of the school year, keep momentum going, and finish the year strong to ensure continued literacy growth. Demonstrates how to leverage student feedback to fine tune the Read and WRAP routines. Discusses various options for incorporating independent and whole class novels into the curriculum Offers a game plan to level up IR including how to launch and lead a Project LIT chapter We live in a time when choosing what we read is critically important and this book offers all the tools teachers need to guide students along the path to true literacy Just Read It is perfect for anyone who believes in the power of books to change students lives and nurture a life long love for reading TExES Core Subjects 4-8 (211) Book + Online Ann M.L.
