Enacting Adolescent Literacies across Communities R. Joseph Rodríguez, 2016-11-30 Through an innovative approach of critical ethnography and literacy research via case study methodologies Enacting Adolescent Literacies across Communities Latino a Scribes and Their Rites analyzes Latino a adolescents engagement with the elements of literacy for English language arts learning and understanding How young people enact literacies in their bicultural lives and understand literary traditions today reveals their own interests in democracy equity and opportunity Moreover the rites they perform often recover buried histories mirrors and stories similar to the pre Columbian scribes whose intellectual legacy is relevant in the twenty first century R Joseph Rodr guez illustrates how adolescents experience scribal identities and language pluralism that sustains their cultural knowledge as they make meaning and enact literacies with diverse audiences in civic and schooling communities

Issues in Latino Education Mariella Espinoza-Herold, Ricardo González-Carriedo, 2017-04-21 This critical case study exposes the educational realities of Latinos in K 12 public schools in the Western United States from the students own perspectives Issues that are often over simplified and commonly misunderstood are brought to life Their accounts are then compared with the viewpoints of a range of K 12 teachers on matters of community learning race culture and school politics
