No Man S Land:

No Man's Land John Toland, 2017-11-22 1918 The end of the war to end all wars The end of an era for victors and vanquished alike When Germany launched the Ludendorff Offensive the most massive military bombardment of World War I they seemed certain to win But when American troops began arriving in droves the Allies certain defeat became a decisive victory No Man's Land takes us into the trenches behind enemy lines into military strategy sessions and through the corridors of power in London Paris Berlin and Washington in a brilliant account of one of the most fateful years in Western history Drawing on new sources diaries memoirs vivid personal experiences here is a book that for sheer excitement drama vigor and emotional impact rivals the greatest novels history marvelously told by the incomparable John Toland A compelling human picture a marvelous job by a master of the big canvas history Business Week

Vermont, Once No Man's Land Merritt Clark Barden, 1928 A genealogical summary of the families who have lived along the New York border in Vermont and their connection with those who lived over the line in New York

No Man's Land Doug Tatum, 2007 If starting a company is difficult leading a company once the business has caught fire is infinitely more so Thousands each year approach the dangerous transition that Doug Tatum calls No Man's Land when they are too big to be considered small but still too small to be considered big Rapid growth is every entrepreneur's dream but it never comes easily and is usually rife with dilemmas During No Man's Land as in human adolescence such growth should spark self discovery acquired discipline and positive but difficult transition Unfortunately it often becomes an agonizing battle between the natural tendencies of a lonely entrepreneur and certain immutable laws of growth The result is confusion frustration stagnation loss of employee morale and at worst financial failure Sounds pretty bleak The good news is that Doug Tatum knows exactly what it takes to get through No Man's Land a map a high place from which to orient yourself and navigational rules to help you track your progress And these tools are here in this book

No Man's Land Susan Campbell Bartoletti, 1999 Because he had been unable to fight off the gator which injured his father fourteen year old Thrasher joins the Confederate Army hoping to prove his manhood

No Man's Land C. M. Saunders, 2017-04-09 The Somme Offensive 1916 Harry Doyle is a young overawed British infantryman struggling to come to terms with the insanity of war His main objective is staying alive and getting back home to his family in one piece But his hopes begin to diminish when he realises the full extent of the misery and destruction around him And the German war machine isn't the only thing he has to worry about Something else is preying on his friends and comrades in the trenches picking them off one by one Something no amount of military training can prepare him for Proceeds from this book will be donated to the Help for Heroes foundation This book contains descriptions of graphic violence and is not suitable for minors NO MAN'S LAND is a literate and vivid narrative of an ugly war a war which for Harry Doyle and his fellow soldiers extends beyond the boundaries of consensus reality The Haunted Reading Room

No Man's Land Mathew Joseph, 2016-08-27 John and Tomaz stepped feet on Earth This is Tomaz's first travel and his eyes are wide open with excitement He is going to see feel and experience new things But he does not seem to be pleased with the first look Tomaz is all set to witness new things that are different from where he comes from Tomaz is filled with curiosity He has a million questions to ask John Tomaz shoots John has all the answers Even though the earth is miniscule compared to other stars and planets in this universe we the human beings divided it into many smaller fragments of land and then further again divide it into ethnics and communities subdivided into even smaller denominations based on manmade differences John analyzes and explains how some countries apply and use common sense to improve their countries living standards and provide a better environment for its inhabitants and at the same time some countries use the worst possible methods of planning construction which leads to the path of self destruction They claim that the souls go through evolution

No Man's Land Eric J. Leed, 1979-05-31 Based on the firsthand accounts of German French British and American front line soldiers No Man's Land examines how the first modern industrialized war transformed the character of the men who participated in it Ancient myths about war eroded in the trenches where the relentless monotony and impotence of the soldier's life was interrupted only by unpredictable moments of annihilation Professor Leed looks at how the traumatic experience of combat itself and the wholesale shattering of the conventions and ethical codes of normal social life turned ordinary civilians into liminal men men living beyond the limits of the accepted and the expected He uses the concept of liminality to illuminate the central features of the war experience the separation from home the experience of pollution death comradeship and the uncanny and the ambivalence of returning veterans about civilian society In a final chapter Professor Leed assesses the long term political impact of the front experience He finds that the end of hostilities did not mean the end of the war experience as much as the beginning of a process by which that experience was framed institutionalized celebrated and relived in political action as well as in fiction

No Man's Land Graham Greene, David Lodge, 2005 Mission and return to the West The result is a remarkable psychologically charged exploration of fear and crossed frontiers Author and playwright Graham Greene 1904-91 is best known for his works Brighton Rock The Power and the Glory and The Heart of the Matter

No Man's Land Reginald Hill, 2019-12-17 A particularly compelling novel of brotherhood and brutality among a band of World War I deserters Publishers Weekly A small group of soldiers led by an Australian named Viney has fled the trenches of the Western front Now they scavenge to survive in the desolate area known as no man's land One of them Josh is shaken by the brutality he has witnessed Another Lothar was a German aristocrat who had no desire to die as a supposed hero There are tensions among the group but they are united in their disdain for the war that rages around them and Lothar and Josh share another bond as each has been traumatized by the loss of a brother during the fighting But as the runaway soldiers hide in the wilds of eastern France their iron fisted leader is being targeted by a Military Police captain with a personal vendetta and they may find that no matter where they run they cannot escape danger in this novel of the First World War that offers a different kind of story The New York Times An imaginative war story It is Hill's compassionate portrayal of the intricacies of sibling and romantic bonding and bereavement that render this novel particularly compelling Publishers Weekly Vivid background detail an intricate but believable plot and solid development of innumerable major and minor characters Library Journal

No Man's Land Paul Swift, 2002 Set on Tyneside during the World War I this moving play sets up dramatic conflicts of issue and personality Women fight for the right to work and to vote and men fight in and in opposition to the war to end all wars It involves a cast of 17 plus extras

Oranges in No Man's Land Elizabeth Laird, 2008-09-04 Oranges in No Man's Land brings Elizabeth Laird's emotional and gripping adventure to her next generation of fans Since her father left Lebanon to find work and her mother tragically died in a shell attack ten year old Ayesha has been living in the bomb ravaged city of Beirut with her granny and her two younger brothers The city has been torn in half by civil war and a desolate dangerous no man's land divides the two sides Only militiamen and tanks dare enter this deadly zone but when Granny falls desperately ill Ayesha sets off on a terrifying journey to reach a doctor living in enemy territory

Blueprints for No-man's Land Janet Stewart, Simon Ward, 2005 This volume brings together a collection of essays focusing on selected aspects of inter and multidisciplinary in contemporary Austrian culture These include the connections between literature and the media literature and the visual arts literature and travel and the visual arts and public space The individual contributions deal with central figures in the Austrian arts including Thomas Bernhard Franzobel Elfriede Jelinek Peter Handke Peter Turrini and Doron Rabinovici as well as collective ventures such as Walter Grond's Odysseus project and the museum in progress They analyse the impact of connections between disciplines on the cultural landscape in contemporary Austria as well as examining the limits of such interaction between disciplines
