Half in Love Maile Meloy, 2009-12-01 Fourteen remarkable stories that combine strong Western settings with a subtle and distinct female voice. This critically celebrated debut collection marks the exciting beginning of prize winner Meloy's promising career. Lean and controlled in their narration, abundant and moving in their effects, Maile Meloy's stories introduce a striking talent. Most are set in the modern American West, made vivid and unexpected in Meloy's unsentimental vision; others take us to Paris, wartime London, and Greece with the same remarkable skill and intuition. In Four Lean Hounds (ca. 1976) two couples face a complicated grief when one of the four dies. In Ranch Girl the college-bound daughter of a ranch foreman must choose which adult world she wants to occupy. In A Stakes Horse a woman confronts risk and loss at the racetrack and at home. And in Aqua Boulevard (winner of the 2001 Aga Khan Prize for Fiction) an elderly Parisian confronts his mortality. Meloy's command of her characters' voices is breathtaking; their fears and desires are deftly illuminated. Smart, surprising, and evocative, Meloy's brilliantly observed stories fully engage the mind and heart.

Plays by Women from the Contemporary American Theater Festival Susan Miller, Eleanor Burgess, Johnna Adams, Chisa Hutchinson, D.W. Gregory, 2019-02-21 Based at Shepherd University in West Virginia, the Contemporary American Theater Festival is nationally and internationally recognized as a home for playwrights and the development and production of new plays. The Festival makes it a priority to celebrate and produce playwrights with strong, distinct voices with a core value to tell diverse stories. This anthology of work provides plays that speak to one of the most compelling virtues of artists everywhere: freedom of speech. A necessary volume of women playwrights' work ranging from a two-time Obie Award-winning author to emerging writers just beginning their careers, it represents a group of women who vary in age, race, and sexual orientation and offers an invitation to artistic leaders, scholars, and students to embrace gritty thought provoking new dramatic work. Edited by The Festival's Producing Directors Peggy McKowen and Ed Herendeen, this anthology features an introduction by Pulitzer Prize winner Lynn Nottage. Each of the five powerful plays is followed by an informative and discursive playwright interview conducted by Sharon J. Anderson that contextualizes and develops the works within the wider context of the annual festival. The plays include Gidion's Knot by Johnna Adams, The Niceties by Eleanor Burgess, Memoirs of a Forgotten Man by D.W. Gregory, Dead and Breathing by Chisa Hutchinson, and 20th Century Blues by Susan Miller.

The Disabled Anthropologist Sumi Colligan, Anna Jaysane-Darr, 2025-03-31 This book brings much needed attention to disabled anthropologists, making clear that disabled and anthropologist belong together. The disabled anthropologists who contribute to this volume and on which these chapters focus have refused erasure from a profession that would ignore their critiques and creativity. Applying autoethnographic, photographic, and poetic venues, the contributors assess the drawbacks of their anthropology training programs, the limitations of accessibility practices in the academy, and how their own embodiments and the contingencies of their research and research settings have facilitated the discovery of novel methodologies and insights. Collectively, this volume's contributors demonstrate a shared concern for the wellbeing of disabled ethnographers and interlocutors whether working with Colombian refugees in Ecuador or those living with chronic pain in Michigan The Disabled Anthropologist is essential reading for students and scholars working in cultural and medical anthropology Team Leadership Graham Kelly,1998 Team Leadership gives you the management adventure the opportunity to assess situations evaluate options and their associated risks and then to make a decision and see the outcome all without affecting your career At each stage you ll be put on the spot to explain your decisions to test yourself as a management adventurer Are you sharp enough to cope with these tricky scenarios Can you analyse and understand the situations in which you find yourself Can you evaluate the options facing you and assess the likely consequences and risks involved Can you really take decisions and live them sufficiently to make them stick While team leadership can be serious this book proves that your personal and professional development can also be fun Netizenship, Activism and Online Community Transformation in Indonesia Ario Seto,2017-09-12 Focusing on the concept of prudence as ethical groundwork for digital practices and activism this book considers digital media expediency and populism as conflicting required experiences that lead digital citizens to discover activism It highlights the importance of digital citizens experience of being in the digital sphere and encourages the reader to look at the dynamics of online movement as a part of a community s search for significance between the online and offline realms of activism Based on ethnographic research about the largest Indonesian online community Kaskus this book uses Indonesian digital citizenship as an example of online activism in a post authoritarian state with media viewed as a tool for democratic advancement and a catalyst for social movements among activists students and citizens both in Indonesia and further afield Set at the intersection of media anthropology sociology Asian studies and Citizenship studies this book considers the shape and future of digital democracy in post authoritarian state United States Reports United States. Supreme Court,2004 Official Reports of the Supreme Court United States. Supreme Court,2002 NOTES FROM OVERGROUND: A diary of isolation and sexual starvation Zakir Hossain,2025-09-04 What happens to a person when years pass without being touched held or chosen Notes From Overground is not a novel nor a self help book but a diary of survival Written in fragments across 158 entries it is the voice of one man navigating life in the shadow of absence a life shaped by loneliness social silence and the ache of unfulfilled intimacy Zakir Hossain writes with stark honesty about the small details that cut deeply A handshake remembered for over a decade A glimpse of warmth through strangers windows The weight of an empty chair at a kitchen table He reflects on moments of childhood belonging that remain vivid against the emptiness of adulthood and on the quiet humiliations that are rarely spoken of This is not a story of grand tragedy It is a record of ordinary days passed in quiet hunger of notes never delivered words left unsaid and the quiet courage it takes simply to keep waiting Yet within the stillness there are flickers of hope A smile at the corner shop A message answered after years The possibility that even in silence connection might still arrive Unflinching and tender Notes From Overground holds up a mirror to the hidden lives of those who go unnoticed It is a meditation on the cost of invisibility and the resilience of longing For readers of personal memoir reflective prose and intimate diaries this book offers not answers but recognition and the rare comfort of knowing you are not alone in your solitude
