

Graduation Welcome Speech – June 2010

It is my pleasure to welcome families, friends, teachers, and our younger students to graduation day at Wilmington Montessori School.

Earlier this morning, I spoke to you and your families at breakfast. Now, I speak to you as the graduates. I don't know if you all have noticed, but there has been an air of excitement in the halls of Wilmington Montessori for the past week – an excitement that began to peak yesterday when your posters went up in the lobby, graduation practice began, we had our last all school assembly and we all began to listen to Kelly practicing the music for today in the gym. There is excitement in the air and it is all about each of you. This entire school community – your teachers, your parents, grandparents, Aunts and Uncles, and brothers and sisters are so very proud of you today.

I would like to thank each of you for all you have brought to WMS during your time here, many of you since you were only a

The Value and Limits of Academic Speech Donald Alexander Downs, Chris W. Surprenant, 2018-05-03 Free speech has been a historically volatile issue in higher education. In recent years however there has been a surge of progressive censorship on campus. This wave of censorship has been characterized by the explosive growth of such policies as trigger warnings for course materials, safe spaces where students are protected from speech they consider harmful or distressing, micro aggression policies that often strongly discourage the use of words that might offend sensitive individuals, new bias reporting programs that consist of different degrees of campus surveillance, the disinvitation of a growing list of speakers including many in the mainstream of American politics and values and the prominent shouting down or disruption of speakers deemed inconsistent with progressive ideology. Not to be outdone, external forces on the right are now engaging in social media bullying of speakers and teachers whose views upset them. The essays in this collection, written by prominent philosophers, political scientists, sociologists and legal scholars, examine the issues at the forefront of the crisis of free speech in higher education. The contributors address the broader historical, cultural, legal and normative contexts of the current crisis and take care to analyze the role of due process in protecting academic freedom and individuals accused of misconduct. Additionally, the volume is unique in that it advances practical remedies to campus censorship as the editors and many of the contributors have participated in movements to remedy limitations on free speech and open inquiry. The Value and Limits of Academic Speech will educate academic professionals and informed citizens about the phenomenon of progressive censorship and its implications for higher education and the republic.

Alaudae Volume 2 Llewelyn Morgan, Michael Lombardi-Nash, 2025-08-21 For the first time more than just a handful of readers will be able to study, enjoy and become acquainted with one of the seminal works by Karl Heinrich Ulrichs. Many have been able to read his works in German but not in Latin. This annotated, easy to read translation will satisfy scholars, educators, researchers, historians, activists and biographers hungry to learn more about the life and work of Ulrichs. Volume 2 contains the 16th to 25th issues from 1891 to 1892. Published to celebrate the bicentenary of Ulrichs' birth in 1825, this three volume edition contains the full Latin text of Alaudae alongside a translation and contextualising notes. Ulrichs is the first known LGBT activist and the founder of LGBT Studies as a social science and he was also a Classicist and journalist. As such he understood the appeal of variety: the issues of Alaudae contain original and contributed poetry and epigrams, stories from the Greek and Latin Classics, descriptions of ancient monuments and their inscriptions, reports on the 300th anniversary of Galileo teaching at the University of Padua, news of earthquakes and unusual weather, serialisations of Ulrichs' own fiction, speeches from university graduations and other festivals and ceremonies, reviews of books, journals and newspapers, examples of German and Italian dialects and of the use of Latin in different countries, reports of religious ceremonies and political events, notes of his own private excursions and experiences and research. The events mentioned took place worldwide across the UK, Ireland, Europe, North and South.
