Elliott-Johns, Daniel H. Jarvis, 2013-12-06 Perspectives on Transitions in Schooling and Instructional Practice examines student transitions between major levels of schooling, teacher transitions in instructional practice, and the intersection of these two significant themes in education research. Twenty-six leading international experts offer meaningful insights on current pedagogical practices, obstacles to effective transitions, and proven strategies for stakeholders involved in supporting students in transition. The book is divided into four sections representing the four main transitions in formal schooling: Early Years Home Pre-school and Kindergarten to Early Elementary Grades 1-3, Early Elementary to Late Elementary Grades 4-8, Late Elementary to Secondary Grades 9-12, and Secondary to Post-Secondary College and University. A coda draws together overarching themes from throughout the text to provide recommendations and a visual model that captures their interactions. Combining theoretical approaches with practical examples of school-based initiatives, this book will appeal to those involved in supporting either the student experience, both academically and emotionally, or teacher professional learning and growth.
