Time: 2 1/2 Hours

Total Score: 80

Instructions

- Read the questions before answering.
- Certain questions have choice. Follow the choice regulations
- When you select a question, all its sub questions (if any) must be answered from the same question itself.

PART I

A. Answer any four questions from 1 to 6. Each carries 1 score.

Read the following passage from the speech 'The Danger of a Single Story' and answer the following questions (1 x 4 = 4)

Years later, I thought about this when I left Nigeria to go to university in the United States. I was 19. My American roommate was shocked by me. She asked where I had learned to speak English so well, and was confused when I said that Nigeria happened to have English as its official language. She asked if she could listen to what she called my 'tribal music' and was consequently very disappointed when I produced my tape of Mariah Carey.

She had felt sorry for me even before she saw me. Her default position towards me, as an African, was a kind of patronising well-meaning pity. My roommate had a single story of Africa. In this single story, there was no possibility of Africans being similar to her in any way, no possibility of feelings more complex than pity, no possibility of a connection as human equals.

I must say that before I went to the U.S., I didn't consciously identify as African. But in the U.S., whenever Africa came up, people turned to me. I did come to embrace this new identity, and in many ways I think of myself now as African, although I still get quite irritable when Africa is referred to as a country. After I had spent some years in the U.S. as an African, I began to understand my roommate's response to me. If I had not grown up in Nigeria, and if all I knew about Africa were from popular images, I too would think that Africa was a place of beautiful landscapes, beautiful animals, and incomprehensible people unable to speak for themselves and waiting to be saved by a kind, white foreigner. I would see Africans in the same way that I, as a child, had seen Fide's family.

1. Why was her room-mate shocked?
2. What was the 'single story' Adichie's room-mate had about Africa?
3. What were the things not possible in the eyes of Adichie's room-mate?
4. When did she embrace the new identity of an African?
5. Why did the professor say that her novels were not authentically Africa?
6. The professor had only a single story Africa. What was that?

B. Answer all questions from 7 to 10. Each carries 1 score.

Read the lines from the poem 'Blowin' in the Wind' and answer the following questions: (1 x 4 = 4)

Yes, and how many years can a mountain exist
Before it is washed to the sea?
Yes, and how many years can some people exist
Before they're allowed to be free?
Yes, and how many times can a man turn his head
And pretend that he just doesn't see?

The answer, my friend, is blowin' in the wind
The answer is blowin' in the wind.
