Routledge Handbook of Urban Planning in Africa Carlos Nunes Silva, 2019-10-28 This handbook contributes with new evidence and new insights to the on going debate on the de colonization of knowledge on urban planning in Africa African cities grew rapidly since the mid 20th century in part due to rising rural migration and rapid internal demographic growth that followed the independence in most African countries This rapid urbanization is commonly seen as a primary cause of the current urban management challenges with which African cities are confronted This importance given to rapid urbanization prevented the due consideration of other dimensions of the current urban problems challenges and changes in African cities The contributions to this handbook explore these other dimensions looking in particular to the nature and capacity of local self government and to the role of urban governance and urban planning in the poor urban conditions found in most African cities It deals with current and contemporary urban challenges and urban policy responses but also offers an historical overview of local governance and urban policies during the colonial period in the late 19th and 20th centuries offering ample evidence of common features and divergent features as well on a number of facets from intra urban racial segregation solutions to the relationships between the colonial power and the natives to the assimilation policy as practiced by the French and Portuguese and the Indirect Rule put in place by Britain in some or in part of its colonies Using innovative approaches to the challenges confronting the governance of African cities this handbook is an essential read for students and scholars of Urban Africa urban planning in Africa and African

Development Transportation, Land Use and Integration I.M. Schoeman, 2017-05-30 For many years the integration of the location of land use and activities in spatial systems as well as the provision of transport in movement of goods services and people has been recognized as a challenge amongst various specialists including engineers transportation planners economists environmentalists urban and regional planners and developers The purpose of this book is to address transportation modelling in terms of technology techniques and methodology application in context to the interface between transportation systems land use planning and environmental challenges and application The methodology of transportation modelling is applied to international practices and application based on specific case studies inclusive of public transportation projects transportation modelling techniques in practice international research agenda network design and channel strategies strategic planning application of technology in traffic surveys and interpretation emissions from transportation systems application of mathematical models and the interface between environment land use and development in terms of location in space and the resulting activities Of value to both theorists and practitioners this book references the integration of transportation modelling techniques within an interdisciplinary environment inside all spatial systems A

^A Practical Guide to Recovery-Oriented Practice: Tools for Transforming Mental Health Care Larry Davidson, Michael Rowe, Janis Tondora, Maria J. O'Connell, Martha Staeheli Lawless, 2008-10-02 This book takes the lofty vision of recovery and of a life in the community for every adult with a mental illness promised by the U S President's New Freedom Commission and shows the reader what is entailed in making this vision a practical reality for people with mental illnesses and their families Road Safety Audits Eugene Madison Wilson, Martin E. Lipinski, National Cooperative Highway Research

Program, 2004 TRB's National Cooperative Highway Research Program NCHRP Synthesis 336 Road Safety Audits examines the state of the practice of road safety audit RSA and road safety audit review applications for U S states and Canadian provinces This synthesis also reviews international RSA practices RSAs were first introduced in the United Kingdom more than 20 years ago and have been applied in New Zealand and Australia since the 1990s Developing Quality Systems in Education Geoff Doherty, 2003-09-02 Educational institutions have not escaped the influence of the quality movement and the FE sector in particular is now being actively encouraged to introduce the BSI's quality assurance standard BS5750 Universities and schools are also attracted by a standard which should improve if not quality itself then the management of quality This book presents an overview of the pitfalls and problems of implementing quality standards in education It explores theoretical issues such as the relationship between the customer and academic culture It also has a strong practical theme looking at the advantages and disadvantages of quality systems case studies of attempts at implementation and proposals for future developments across the education sector as a whole

Family and Gendered Violence and Conflict
Ruchi Sinha,Pekham Basu,2024-11-19 This reference work collates academic discourses and practices around family gender and violence in social work A huge body of discourse is available that categorizes and labels acts of violence and correspondingly practices that pin blame responsibility for the violence These have led to evolution of intervention strategies to resolve or address the violence Some explanations foreground systemic causes others look at person centric causes The two views bring forth the fundamental ontological divide of structuralism and individualism The question for social workers to debate is what to factor in while working with families experiencing violence and conflict What amongst the person the agency or the structure needs to be addressed to understand the experience of families in conflict and violence Are these positions supplementary complementary or to be understood reflexively With the inclusion of new families the parochial understanding of families has long been dislodged and given way to newer radical and contextual understanding of families Similarly different people agencies and states understand violence and conflict differently Gender too has moved from the binaries of male and female to the gender diverse LGBTQIA identities The book positions the ontological premise on which the epistemological practise is located Simply put the person centric ontology on families and violence epistemologically finds understanding in agency based approaches in individual agency whereas the structure based approaches find the experience of families and violence in society state and the world order The contributors locate their work around identification definition an intervention or empirical study policy analysis historical evolution of concepts and ontological and paradigmatic debates to position their individual chapters Family and Gendered Violence and Conflict Pan Continent Reach provides a paradigmatic prism for practice for social workers who are equipped to interpret context differently The differing and competing paradigmatic lenses cannot be mediated resolved or addressed but they definitely can be understood and debated to provide a 360 degree lens on the issues of families in violence in the gendered context The reference work is a useful resource for social work practitioners educators academicians researchers and other development professionals

The SAGE Deaf Studies Encyclopedia Genie Gertz, Patrick Boudreault, 2016-01-05 The time has come for a new in depth encyclopedic collection of articles defining the current state of Deaf Studies at an international level and using the critical and intersectional lens encompassing the field The emergence of Deaf Studies programs at colleges and universities and the broadened knowledge of social sciences including but not limited to Deaf History Deaf Culture Signed Languages Deaf Bilingual Education Deaf Art and more have served to expand the activities of research teaching analysis and curriculum development The field has experienced a major shift due to increasing awareness of Deaf Studies research since the mid 1960s The field has been further influenced by the Deaf community s movement resistance activism and politics worldwide as well as the impact of technological advances such as in communications with cell phones computers and other devices A major goal of this new encyclopedia is to shift focus away from the Medical Pathological Model that would view Deaf individuals as needing to be fixed in order to correct hearing and speaking deficiencies for the sole purpose of assimilating into mainstream society By contrast The Deaf Studies Encyclopedia seeks to carve out a new and critical perspective on Deaf Studies with the focus that the Deaf are not a people with a disability to be treated and cured medically but rather are members of a distinct cultural group with a distinct and vibrant community and way of being
