Barker Bausell,2017-09-11 This book poses and ultimately answers the question of whether the public schools would have been affected if no educational research had been conducted during this century To answer this question 12 genres of educational research are evaluated The genres are accompanied by non technical annotated synopses examples of each A case is made that the science of education as a whole is repetitive non cumulative and is characterized by a circular rather than a linear trajectory Epistemologies of Ignorance in Education Erik Malewski,Nathalia Jaramillo,2011-03-01 Epistemologies of Ignorance provide educators a distinct epistemological view on questions of marginalization oppression relations of power and dominance difference philosophy and even death among our youth The authors of this edited collection challenge the ambivalence ignorance found in the construction of curriculum teaching practices research guidelines and policy mandates in our schools Further ignorance is also considered a necessary by product of knowledge production In this sense the authors explore not only issues of complicity but also issues of oppression in spite of educators liberatory intentions While this is the first systematic effort to transfer epistemologies of ignorance to the educational scene this movement has its roots in race class gender and sexuality studies particularly the work of Charles Mills Eve Kosofsky Sedgwick Shannon Sullivan and Nancy Tuana It is our unequivocal belief that while this is transformative and powerful scholarship the study of ignorance remains understudied and under theorized in education scholarship from curriculum studies and cultural foundations to science education and educational psychology This collection highlights without apology why this dangerous state of affairs cannot continue Defense Management Journal ,1981
