

5 Elements of a Story

Character

A character is a person, or sometimes even an animal, who takes part in the action of a story.

Setting

The setting of a short story is the time and place in which it happens. Authors often use descriptions of landscape, scenery, buildings, seasons or weather to provide a strong sense of setting.

Plot

A plot is a series of events and character actions that relate to the main conflict.

Conflict

The conflict is a struggle between two people or things in a story.

The main character may struggle against another important character, against the forces of nature, against society, or even against something inside himself or herself (feelings, emotions, illness).

Theme

The theme is the main idea or belief in a story.

"Love always beats evil."
